ORGANIZATIONS

...more than just a membership...

Richard Marrs executes his first official duty as Student Council President at the freshman orientation.

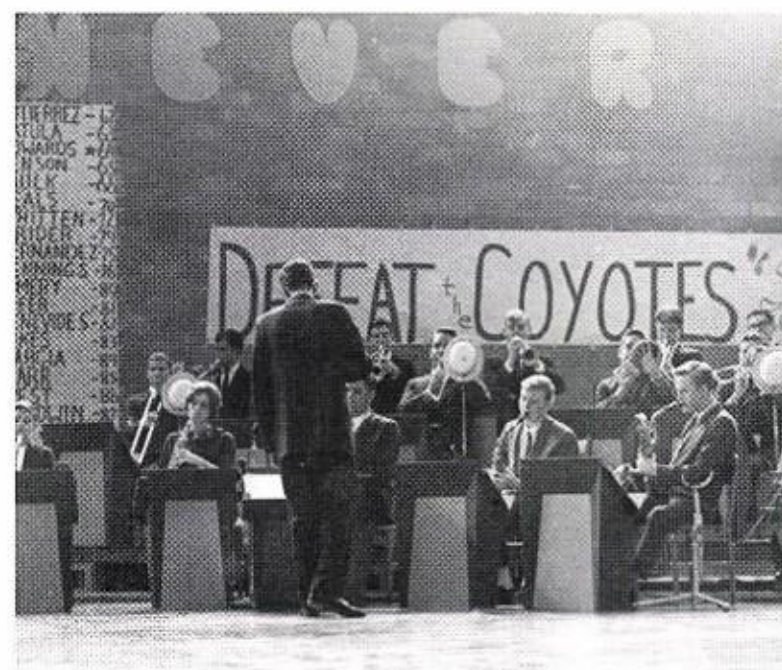

Student Council members make plans for the Christmas formal at a general meeting at Torres Restaurant.

Student Council Leadership

Vice-president Lary Priour, Secretary Molly Syers, Treasurer Lenelle Caulkins, and President Richard Marrs attended a Student Council workshop in Houston last August.

The Tivy Stage Band, under the direction of Moddie Smith, provided entertainment at the Student Council talent show.

Represents and Service

Molly Syers calls roll as Student Council members Sandra Scharnberg, Sully Woodland, Clinton Jones, Dotty Drane, Mary Ann Peril, Lou Vest, Steve Short, Diane Taylor, Lary Priour, Bill Bartels, and Dighton Packard answer.

In the spring of the preceding year, the four major officers are elected by the student body. After attending a workshop in Houston they sponsor freshman orientation. The council raised money for a new sign for Antler Stadium by sponsoring a talent show. Homecoming and Christmas activities are co-ordinated so that most clubs participate. During March the officers attend the Texas Association of Student Councils state convention in Dallas. To promote good sportsmanship, the council presents the visiting football team with books for their libraries.

Treasurer Mike Whelan distributes NHS pins to Murrell Hanchey, Molly Syers, and George Carr.

The National Honor Society begins the year with an assembly in which the new members are tapped. These members represent the top ten per cent of the senior class and the top five per cent of the junior class. To raise money for the scholarship given annually to a deserving senior, NHS sells refreshments at Drama Club plays and sponsors a Valentine assembly. The society ends the year with its traditional picnic, at which new officers are elected. Ten of the seventeen junior and senior members of the Student Council are NHS members. Eleven out of twenty-three clubs are headed by NHS members. Also members of NHS are seven varsity athletes, drum major, band twirler, four cheerleaders, editor and business manager of the yearbook, and the president and vice-president of the junior and senior classes.

National Honor Represents Tivy's

Dighton Packard, President of NHS, has shown his ability to lead in many instances. He has been a member of NHS for three years and has served this club well during all three years.

New members wait in fear of their initiation.

Society Members

Best Scholars

NHS Officers: Treasurer Mike Whelan, President Dighton Packard, Reporter Robbie Groll, Secretary Lenelle Caulkins, and Vice-president Jerry Hunnicutt, meet with the sponsors, Denny Cook and Mrs. Jessie Wilson.

Hunnicutt attempts to persuade disinterested listeners.

Antlerettes Add Color

to Halftime Activities

The Antlerette sponsor, Georgia Griffith, spends many hours on the halftime performances and other Antlerette activities.

Senior sergeant Bobbie Meyners, junior sergeant Jo Ann Doran, and sophomore sergeant Brenda Talbert discuss halftime activities.

The Antlerette officers and cheerleaders start the year early by attending summer camp at Southern Methodist University in Dallas. A new dance group, consisting of twenty Antlerettes, was featured at the last two football games. With their pep rallies and downtown parades, they supported the Antlers to a co-district championship. Candy sales and concession stands are only a few of the many facets of this very active organization.

The Tivy Antlerettes support the Antler basketball teams at their home games.

Antlerette officers Dianne Honea, reporter; Gloria Trevino, secretary - treasurer; Sue Landgrebe, vice - president and Dotty Drane, president, work on signs for the halls.

Antlerettes Hold

The senior Antlerettes make the best of their last out-of-town game by yelling all the way home.

Antlerette members operate the concession stands.

Band Twirlers for 1965-1966 are Wanda Jones, June Kovar, Cindy Ellis, Kathy Bradfute, Linda Smith, and Head Twirler Lenelle Caulkins.

Director Moddie Smith and Drum Major Randy West work closely together throughout the year.

Hard-working members practice marching on hot summer days.

Officers are elected at band camp during the summer.

The Tivy Band is more than just an interschool organization. It is a group of 98 cohorts plus a dedicated director held together by a fiery spirit.

This tightly-knit organization backs the football team at pep rallies, downtown parades and games; practices in 20° weather to perfect its halftime performances; entertains by concert the townspeople and attends marching and concert contests achieving honor for the school. In all that it does, the Tivy Sweepstakes Band displays the pride and enthusiasm of a youthful and talented organization.

Randy West begins the half time show with his goose-step entrance on the field.

The band thrills at a touchdown at Tivy's victory over South San Antonio and the winning of Co-district Championship.

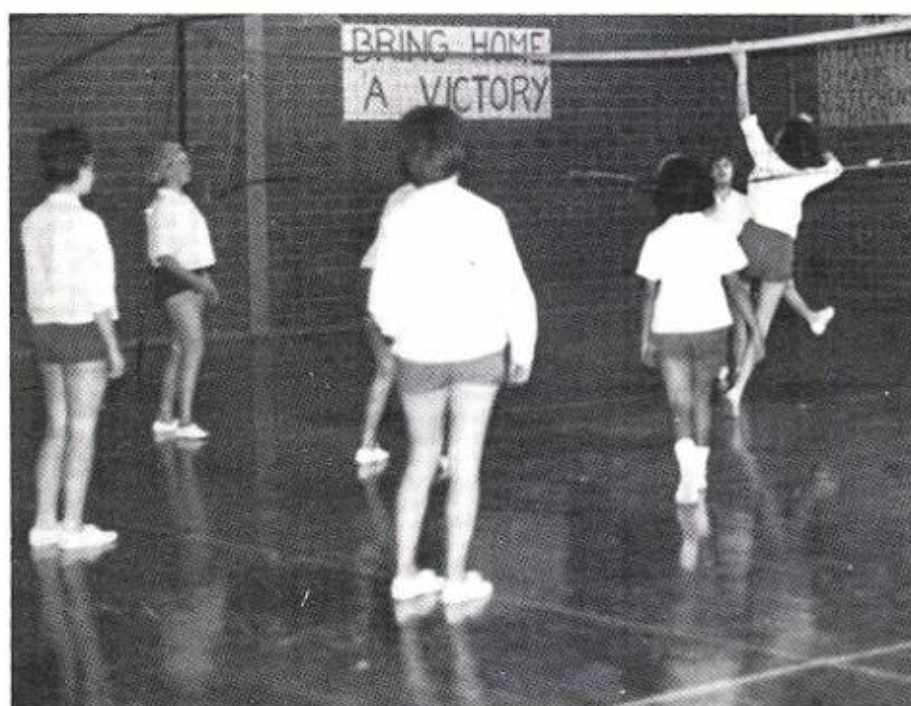

Girls Sports Sponsor Intramurals

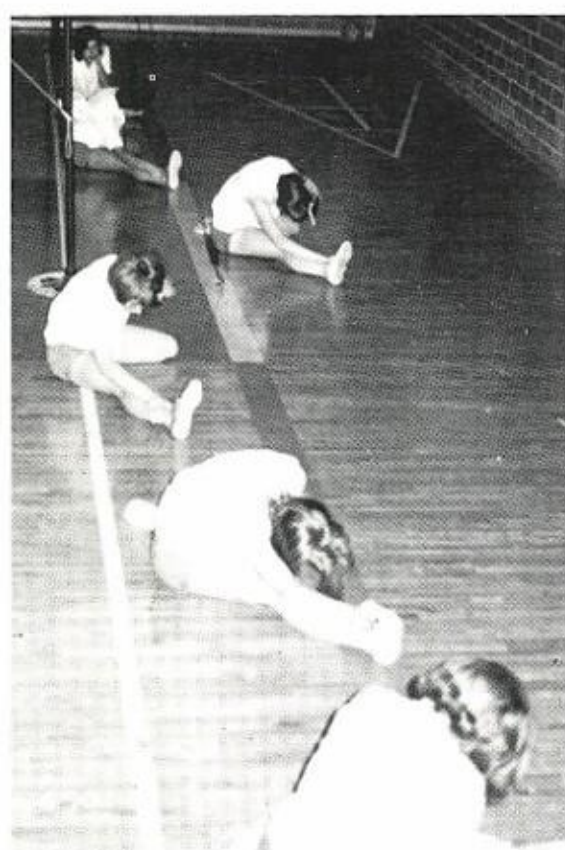

Athletics requires physical fitness.

GSA officers are Vice-president Brenda Talbert, Reporter June Morgan, President Linda Reynolds, Secretary Judy Evans.

Volleyball requires practice

Being limber is a vital part in physical fitness.

Girls Sports Association is an organization through which various athletic skills are displayed. In spring intramural tournaments are held in volleyball, basketball, and ping-pong.

GSA sponsor is Georgia Griffith.

Tivy Lettermen Make Up T-Association

Possibly one of the oldest organizations in Tivy is the T - Association. The T - Association has organized lettermen in all of Tivy's sports for more than thirty-eight years. Athletes have to meet certain standards to obtain their letter and membership in the association. The T - Association proves itself not only in athletic ability, but in service to others also. The association gave a dance in honor of Tommy Pickens, a B-team football player who suffered a serious illness this past season.

University League Club Forensic Members

This year's UIL Club officers are Jerry Hunnicutt, president; Lynn Le-Meilleur, vice-president; Cindy Lochte, secretary-treasurer; and, not pictured, Clinton Jones, reporter.

This year the UIL Club has a record membership of 52 members.

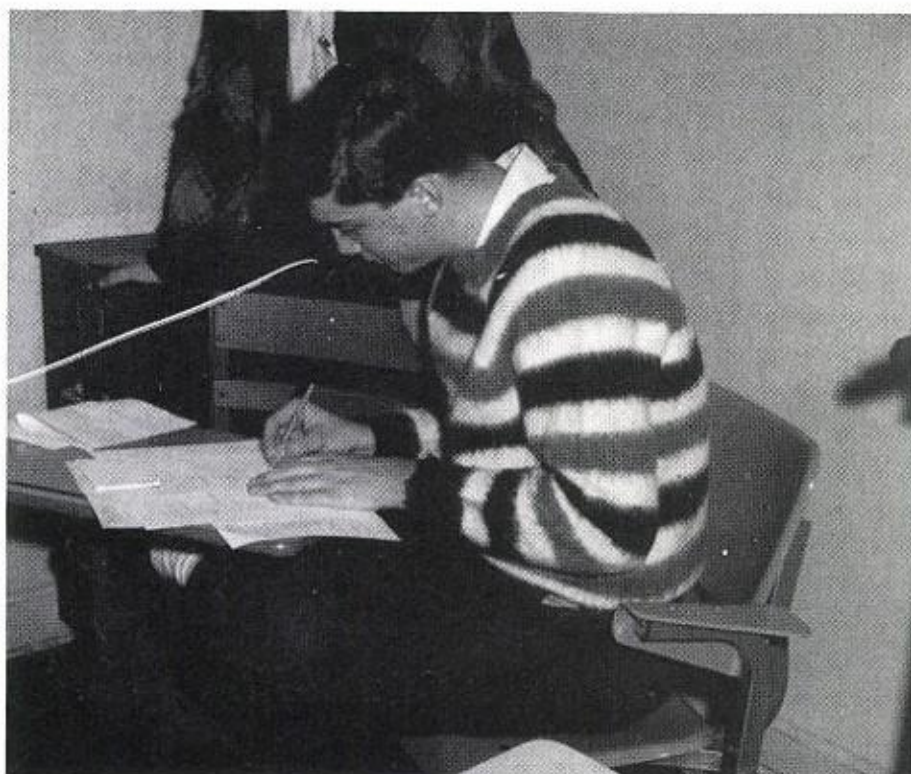

Interscholastic Instigates Achievement; Attend Meets

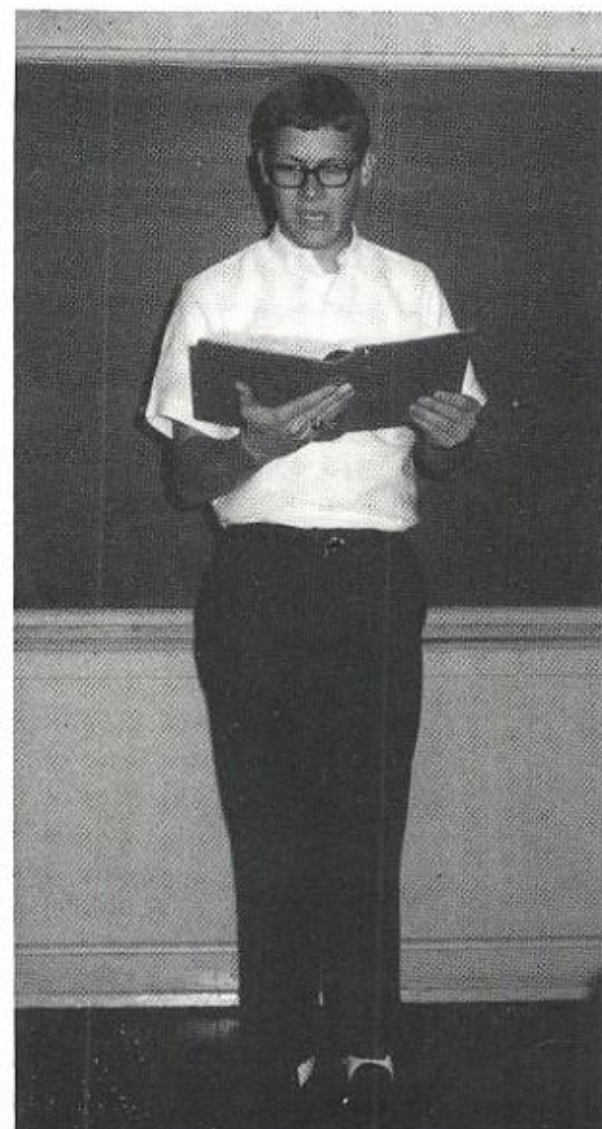

Tivy Debaters, with sponsor Kathleen Akin, attend many debate meets throughout the year.

Students with interests in University Interscholastic League related activities such as debate, poetry and prose interpretation, slide rule, extemporaneous speaking, and duet acting are members of this club. This year members of the organization not only travel to and participate in UIL speech meets, but also host an inter-school speech meet here on January 15.

The UIL Club, under its able sponsor Mrs. Lloyd Luna, meets on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

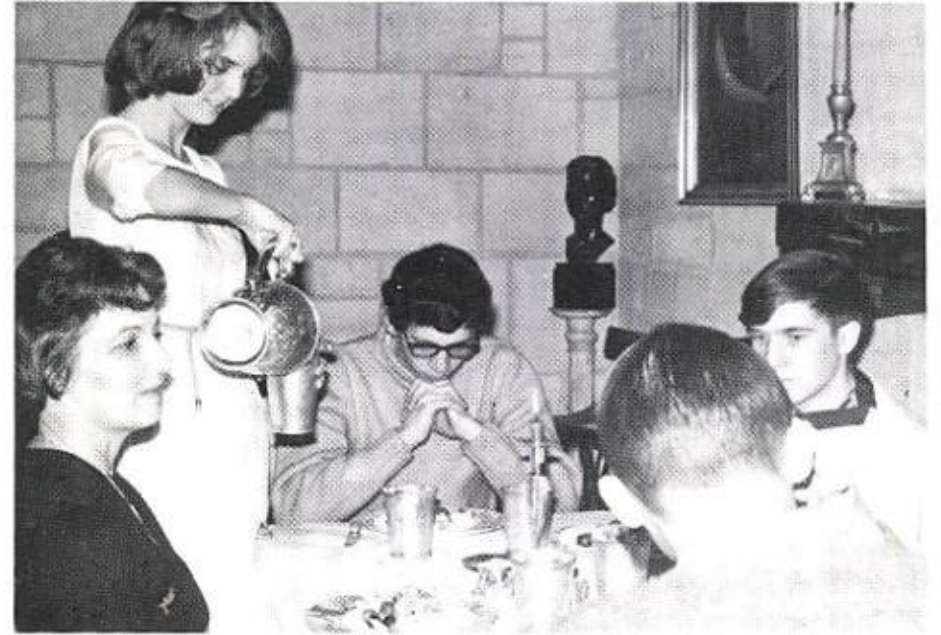

Club president Jerry Hunnicutt plans for the inter-school speech meet on January 15.

Club member Randy West practices prose interpretation for oncoming meet.

As Imperator Nick Prychodko watches, Karen Stevenson washes her hands in preparation for the meal.

David Schofield, past president; Danny Schoenewolf, former consul of the West; and Mrs. Nell Stevenson visit the annual Saturnalia.

Latin Club Promotes

These slaves enjoy their first Saturnalia.

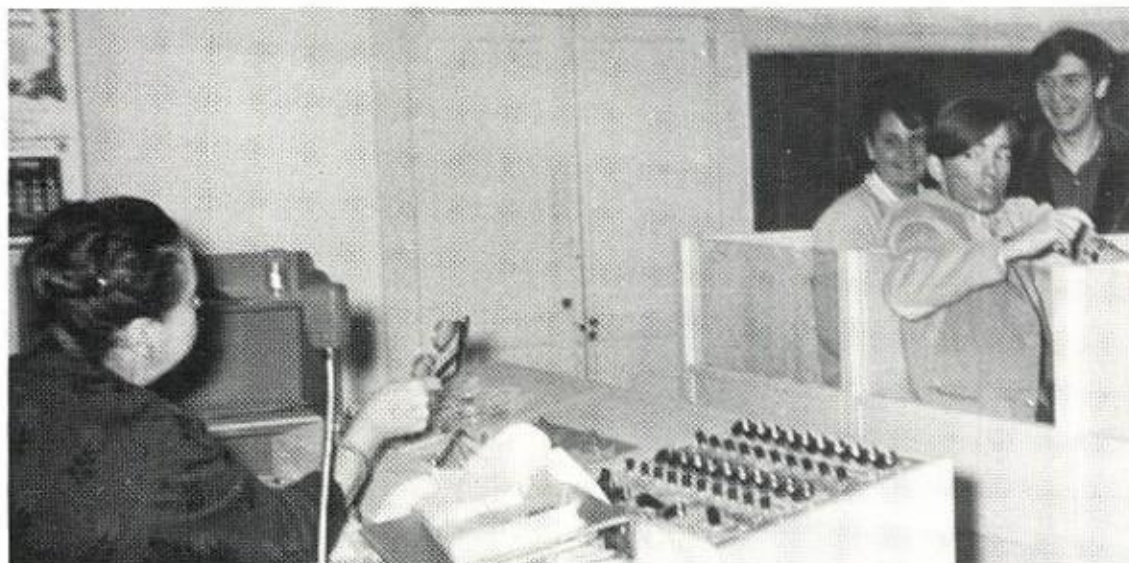

Several first year students relax and visit after singing Christmas carols.

Mrs. Ethel Baker, who recently toured Europe, has many items of cultural interest for her students.

Kathy Cory, consul of the East; Rose Morrow, consul of the West; and Martha Pollard, lictor, assume their duties at a meeting.

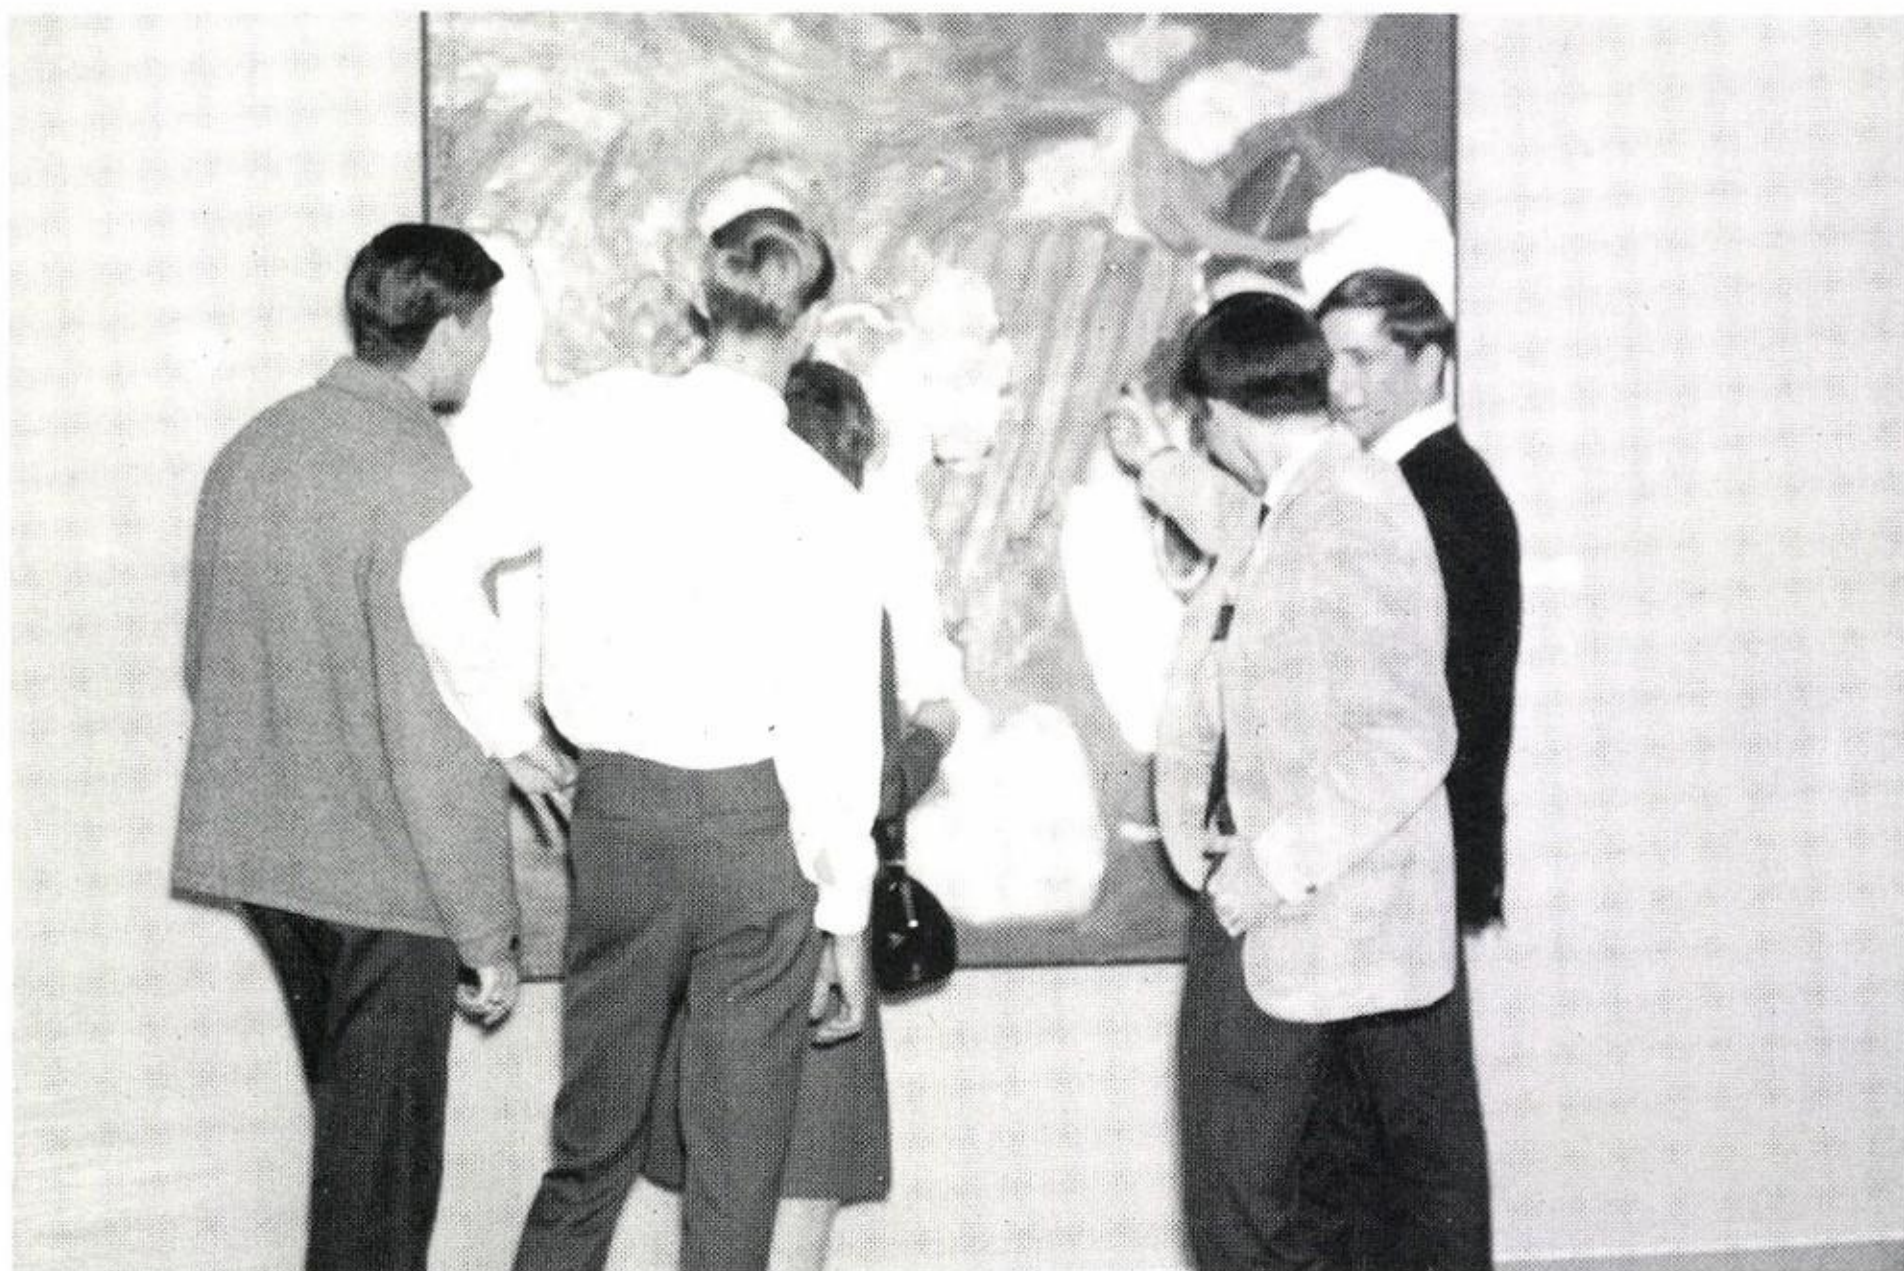

"Don't you turn your back to me," Mrs. Baker admonishes Pontifex Maximus Jerry Ficker, as Nick Prychodko and Karen Stevenson look on.

Cultural Interest

During the year the Latin Club works on several projects to supplement funds for the Yolanda Klein Scholarship, which is given to a senior Latin student who meets certain qualifications. All new members are initiated in a ceremony early in the fall. Before Christmas members attend the Saturnalia, which is a take-off on an ancient Roman festival. At the party all freed men serve the slaves. The sale of Christmas cards and the preparation of the Latin banquet and play in the spring keep members busy with fund-raising projects. These events also help defray expenses for several members who travel to the Junior Classical League in February.

Kathy Thomas, scriba, and Beverly Lyman, quaestor, work with Mrs. Baker.

By taking field trips, art students learn to understand the purpose of art.

Art Association Inspires

Art Association sponsor, Peggy Wahrmond, trains young artists.

The Tivy Art Association is a selective organization that requires each prospective member to be screened before admittance. The club takes various field trips to the Witte Museum and the McNay Art Institute in San Antonio. In the spring, the club travels to the Laguna Gloria in Austin. Also held in the spring is the annual Spring Exhibition, through which the artist gains experience in open competition and constructive criticism. Throughout the year the club helps in decorating and designing various school projects. They also sell glassware to raise money.

Art Association officers are Reporter Jaine Lopez, Spring Exhibit Chairman Bill Bartels, Secretary-Treasurer Sue Sandidge, Vice-president Frank Rosas, President Danelle Rees.

Young Artists

Work is required by all members.

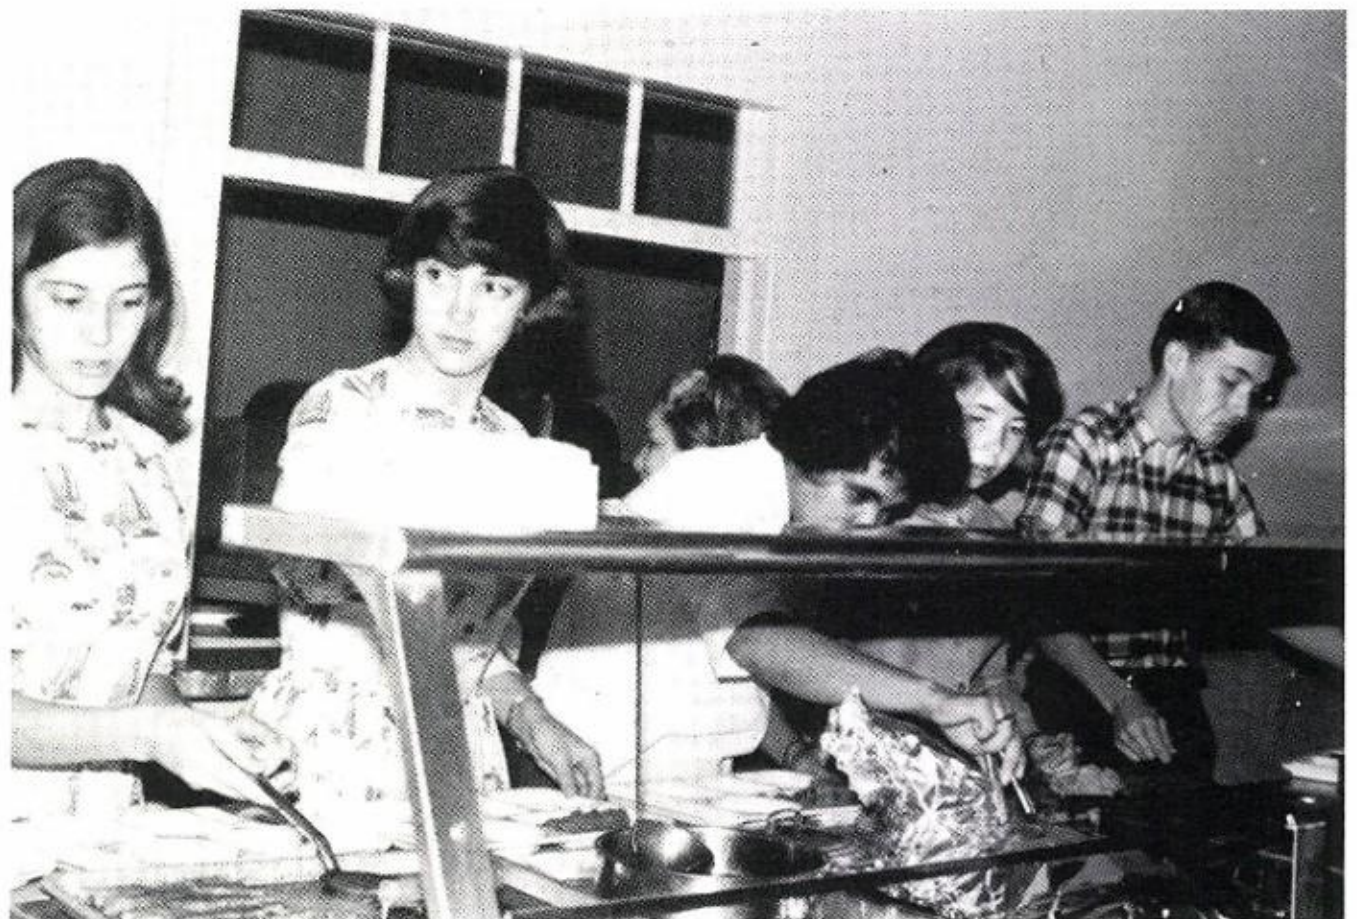

A major part of art is interpretation.

Busy Spanish Club officers take time out for dinner at the Inn. Officers are Lynn LeMeilleur, president; Andree LeMeilleur, reporter; Richard Marrs, sergeant-at-arms; Dotty Drane, vice-president; Gloria Trevino, secretary; Margaret Sanchez, treasurer.

Spanish Club Raises Money

The Spanish Club works throughout the year on various activities to increase their knowledge of the Spanish language and customs. Their Mexican Dinner, which is held in the fall, is only one of the many money-raising projects they put on. The money they receive is used by the junior and senior members of the Spanish Club for the annual trip to Mexico.

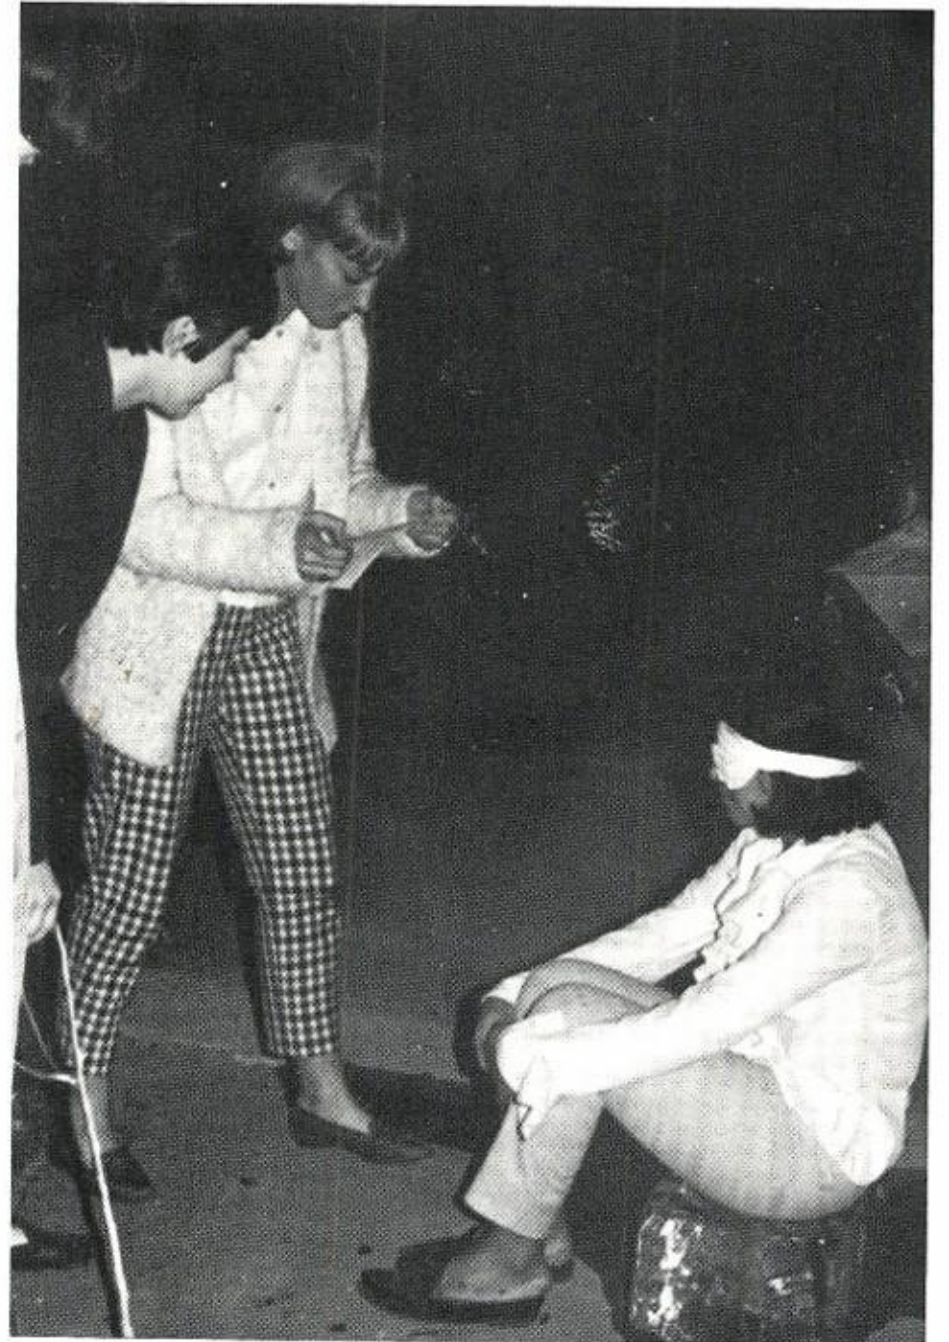

Andree LeMeilleur, Lynn LeMeilleur, Dianne Valencia, Dolores Herrera, Jeanne Schumacher and Peter Carr work diligently to make the Mexican dinner a success.

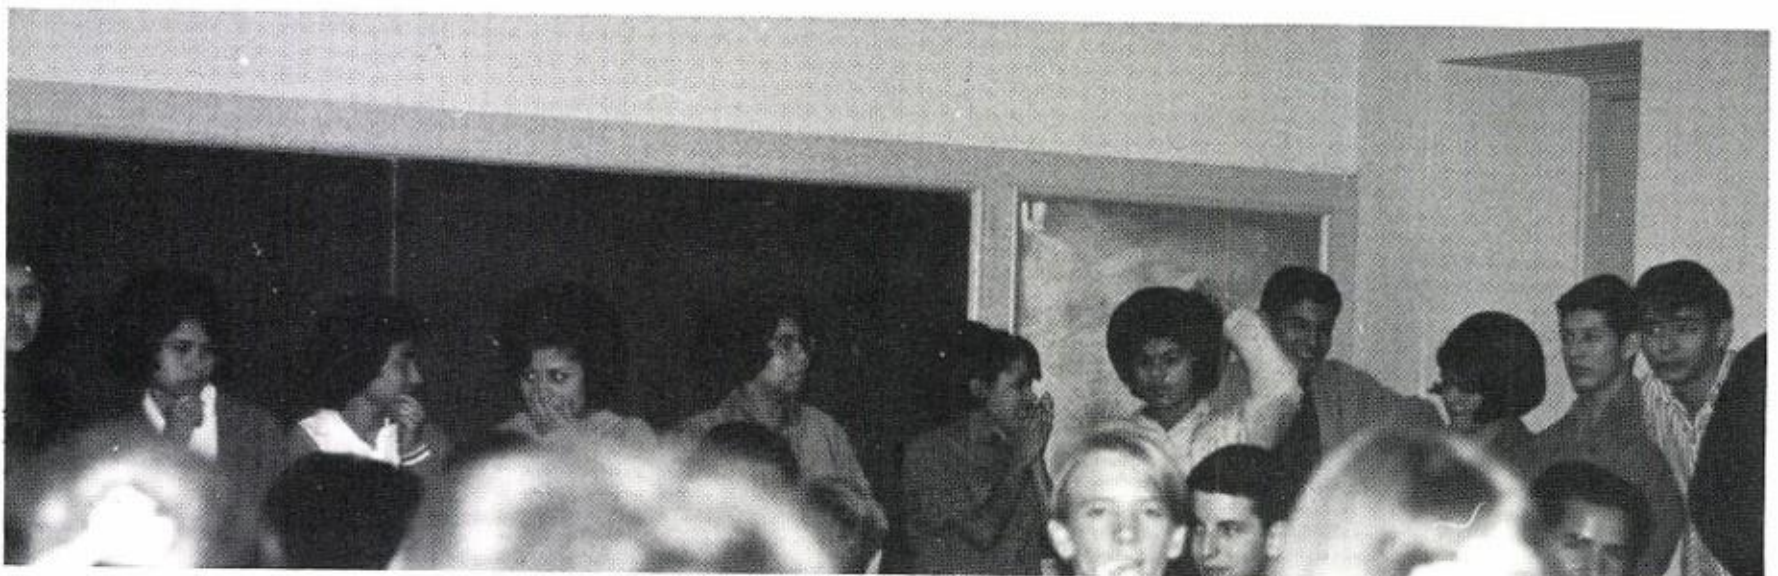

Daniel Eisaman, sponsor of the Spanish Club for two years, takes time out to discuss the life in Mexico.

for Mexico Trip

Cindy Ellis, Jo Boldin and Laura Findlay give Sylvia Arrendondo the finishing touches of the initiation.

Spanish Club members elect officers early in the fall.

FTA officers lead the initiation service. Pictured are Penny VonEssen, reporter; Cindy Lochte, historian; Vicki Voelkel, treasurer; Lynn LeMeilleur, president; Robbie Groll, secretary; Lenelle Caulkins, vice-president; and Sully Woodland, sergeant-at-arms.

Barbara Condon portrays librarian Mary Carden at the teacher imitation assembly.

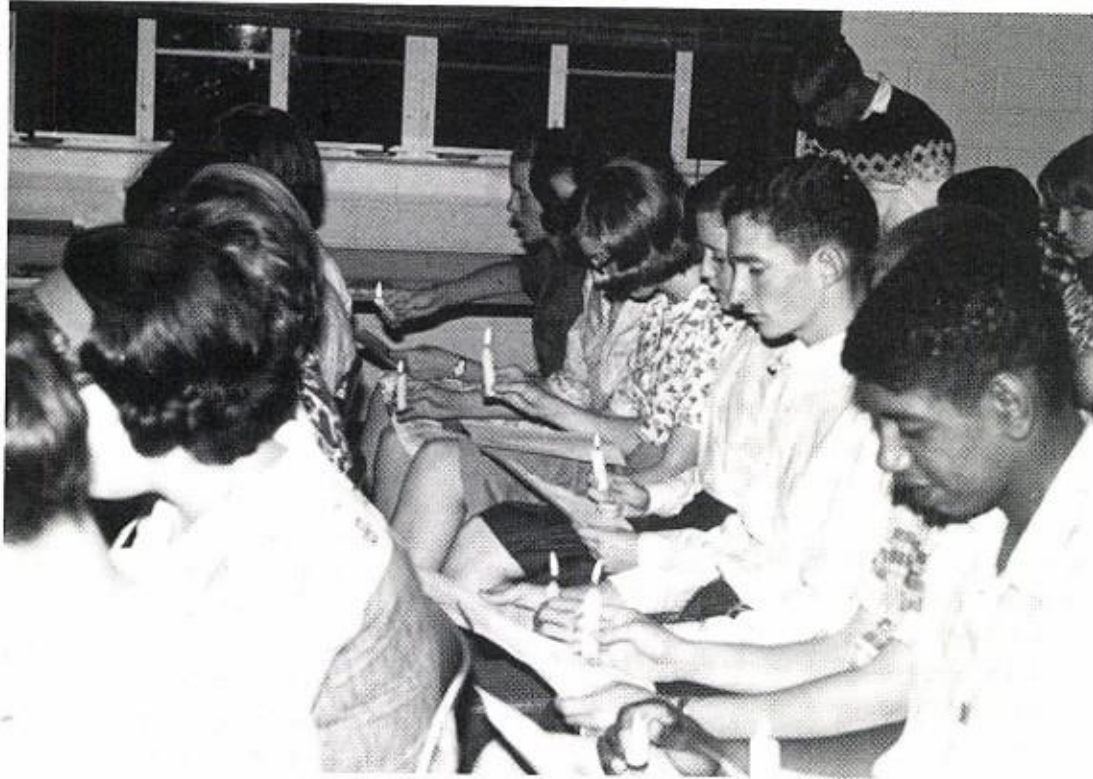

The Future Teachers of America must certainly be one of the most active organizations at Tivy. In November the chapter presents a paid assembly to raise money for a scholarship to be given to a graduating member and attends the district convention. This year the convention elected Andree LeMeilleur District Vice-president. In the fall the club sponsors a holiday safety stop and at Christmas it gives a coffee for the teachers. In honor of April, Teaching Career Month, the group sponsors an assembly and participates in teaching career day by taking the place of the elementary and junior high teachers for a day.

Several club members decorate the FTA Christmas tree that was placed in the main hall.

Tivy's delegates to the FTA District Convention actively campaign for the chapter's candidate.

New FTA members recite the chapter's pledge during the initiation ceremony.

FTA members honored the faculty with a Christmas coffee.

Vice-president Linda Wideman attends a Young Homemaker tea where she is honored as "Little Sister."

Future Homemakers

Dr. Andrew Edington prepares to address FHA members at a special meeting.

After the initiation, Darla Vallier serves new members refreshments.

It is the officers' duty to plan the initiation ceremony. Those pictured are Andree LeMeilleur, parliamentarian; Diane Valencia, historian; Linda Wideman, vice-president; Janis Chism, president; Gayle Haney, secretary-reporter; and Judy Evans, treasurer. Not pictured is Valna Sauer, entertainment.

The Future Homemakers of America begin their busy year early. In August the officers attend a workshop at Texas Tech. In addition to preparing Christmas cards for the State Home, the members find time to go caroling. The new year brings such varied activities as a talent show, "Daddy Date Night," FHA Week, a trip to the Fat Stock Show in San Antonio, and "Family Night" in April.

Receive Valuable Training

Andree LeMeilleur prepares new members for their initiation.

President Janis Chism models the dress that won her the State "Best Dress" award.

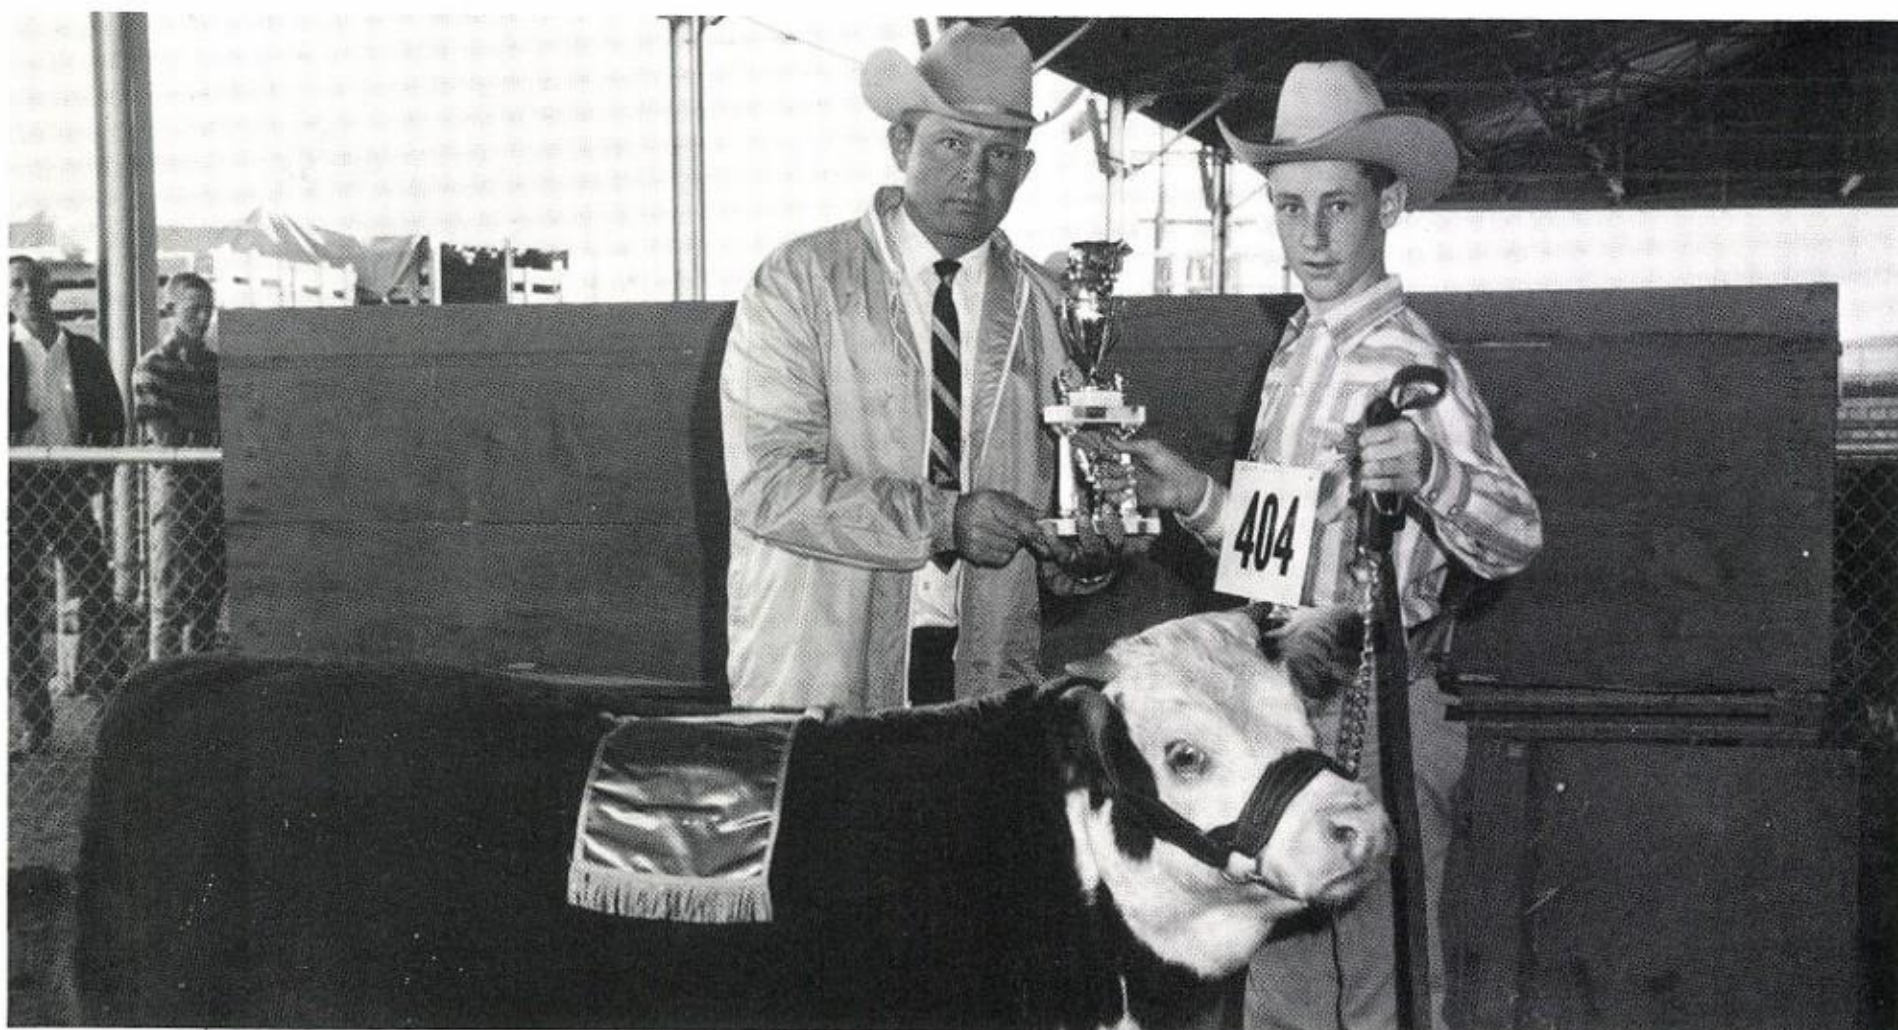

President Norris Scoggins and Secretary Gene Garrett discuss the minutes of the last meeting.

An active group, the Future Farmers of America attended various judging contests. During both winter and summer the members go to stock shows in Fort Worth, Dallas, Waco, El Paso, San Antonio, Houston, and San Angelo as well as the Kerrville Stock Show. There is also an FFA Rodeo during the spring. There have been many projects at the FFA farm which was given to the Kerrville Independent School District with the stipulation that it is to be used only for agricultural purposes. There have been many improvements made upon the farm such as a new stock tank and a soil conservation project.

Future Farmers of America Attend

Tommy Henderson and Dale Malacheck, foreman of the Lyndon B. Johnson Ranch, display a prize heifer at the Dallas State Fair.

Sponsors Barry Ward and Alvin Tiemann, Judge Joe Tatum, Lamb Superintendent John Gattis, and FFA member Dale Henderson show a Reserve Grand Champion Lamb at the Dallas State Fair.

Stock Shows

FFA members ask questions about the upcoming stock show.

Treasurer Mike Baumann takes his place under the treasurer sign during an FFA meeting.

Key Clubbers Strive to

Dwayne Bliss speaks at the Key Club sponsored Leadership Reception honoring school organization leaders.

Lt. Governor Jerry Hunnicutt and Divisional Council Secretary Mike Whelan draw up plans for a proposed meeting. Hunnicutt is head of Divisional Five covering the Kerrville, San Antonio, and Uvalde Key Clubs.

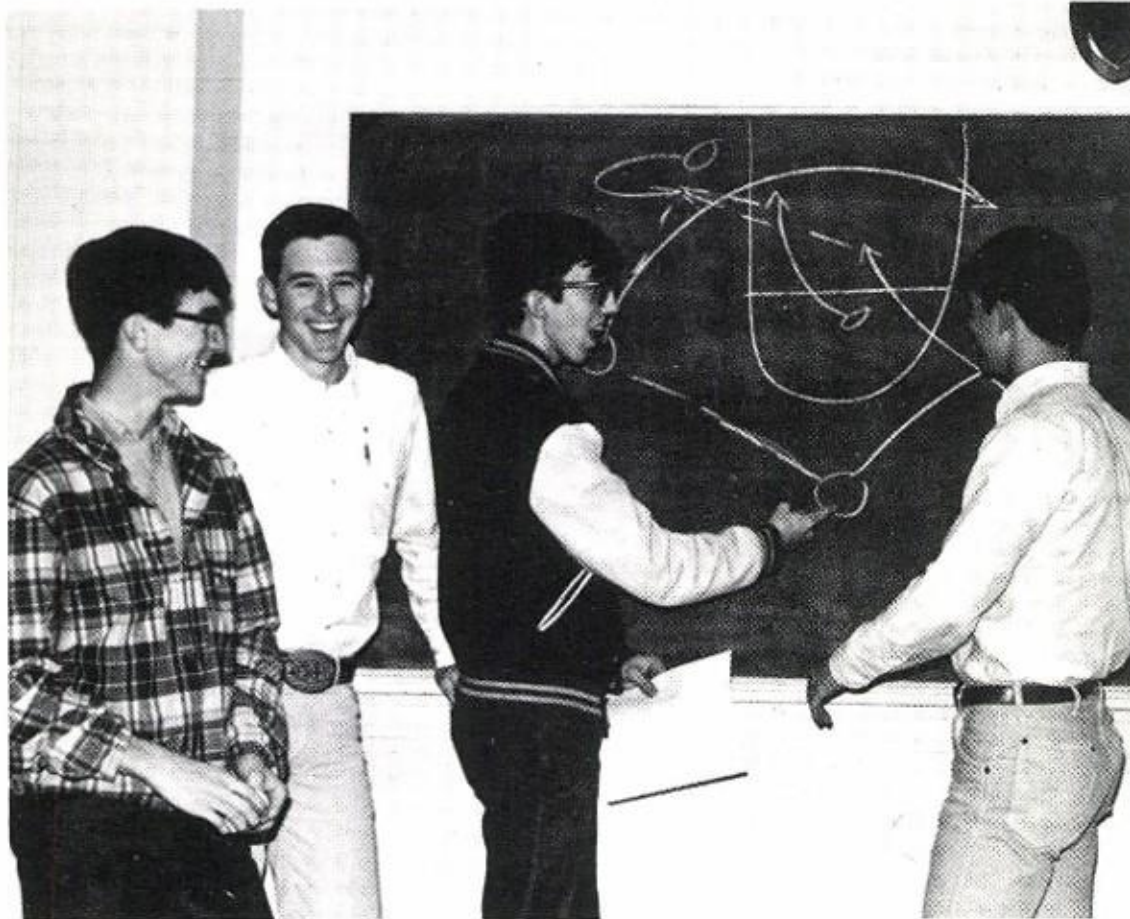

Key Clubbers enjoy regular business meetings weekly. Once each week a member attends the luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club.

University of Texas football star, Phil Harris, was the speaker at the Parents Appreciation Banquet.

"Serve With Integrity"

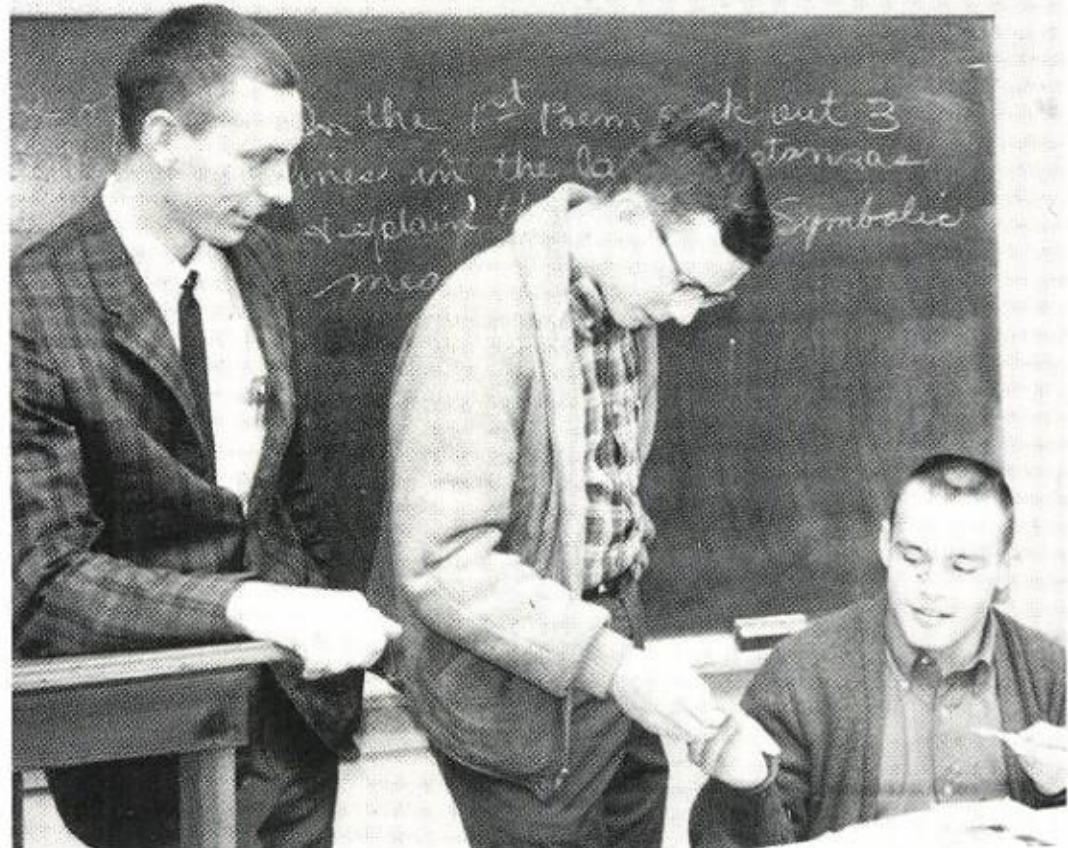

Secretary Stanley Caulkins, Bobby Barr, Senior Director Clifford Wood, and Junior Director Harold Kennedy double as Little League Basketball coaches.

A Key Club isn't all work.

Although relatively new to the Tivy scene, the Key Club has established itself as one of the most active school organizations. Sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, the organization is dedicated to building character and leadership in its members and performing worthwhile services for its school and community. This year the Key Club sponsored a Parents Appreciation Banquet, an all-school Vocational Day, a school Leadership Reception, and a Little League Basketball program. Key Clubbers also aid in the Tivy basketball tournament, host two Key Club divisional gatherings, and hold a model Kiwanis program. The busy year is climaxed by a three-day Texas-Oklahoma District convention in Dallas which several members attend.

Faculty Advisor Gene Ball and Vice-president Albert Reiter help President Danny Sowards plan Key Club activities.

Choir requires a great deal of practice by both director and members.

Concert Choir Trains

Choir Director Tommy Allen has been at Tivy for two years.

The Concert Choir, under the direction of Tommy Allen, is a hard-working organization. In co-operation with the Tivy Band, the Concert Choir displays its vocal talent for the public in their annual Christmas program.

Individual practice is necessary for a successful showing.

Choir officers are Terry Tyson, Vice-president; Charles Hoffman, President; Sandra Frazier, Secretary; and Karen Brehmer, Librarian.

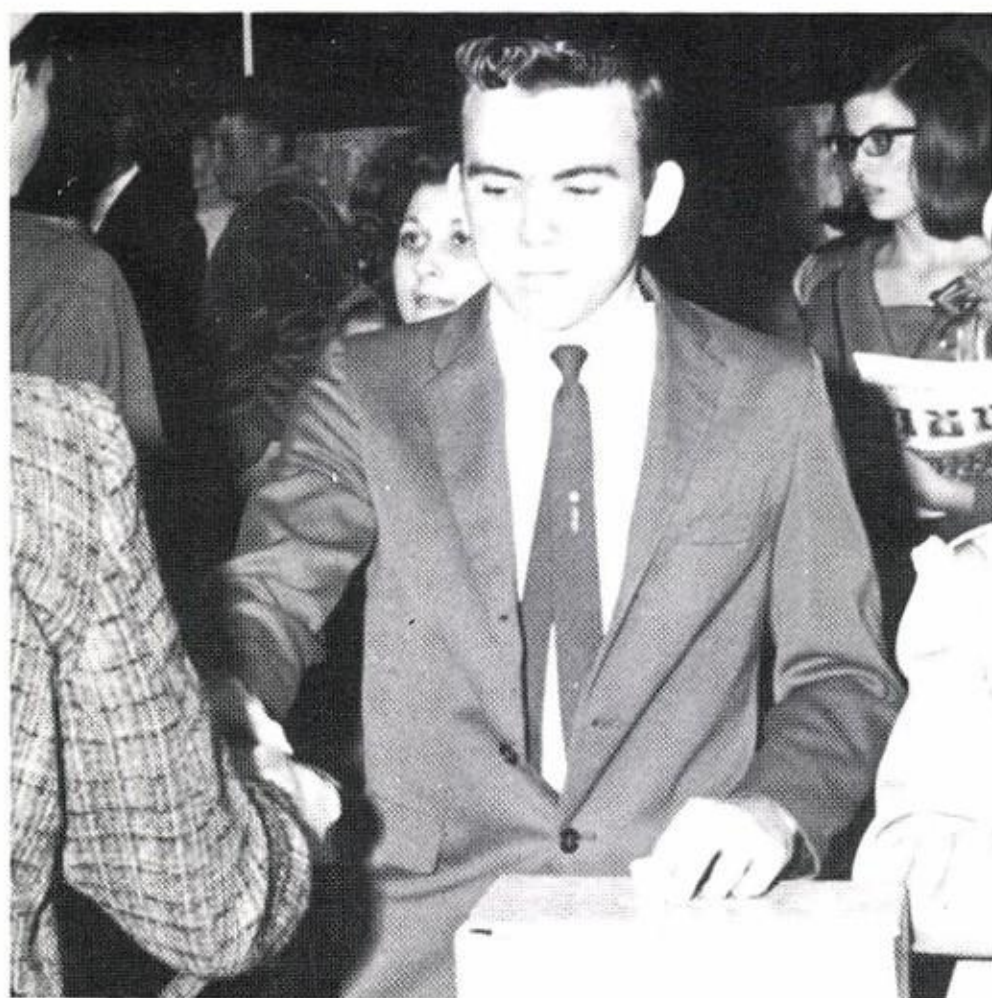

Young Voices

Singing is both precise and fun.

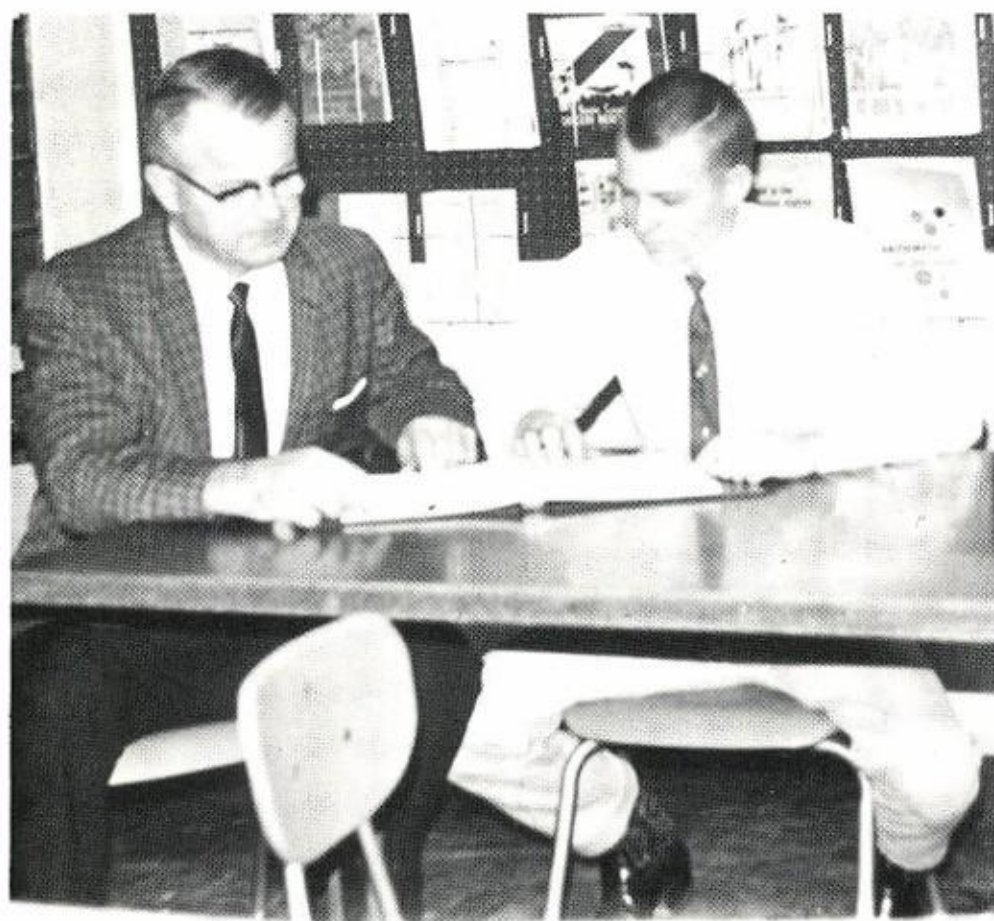

James Davis, DE vice-president, works at the Piggly Wiggly grocery store.

DE member Robert Boyd collects tickets during a home football game. Members also serve as ushers during the season.

Distributive Education

DE Sponsor Bradley Gardner and President Jerry Burson work out plans for the annual Employer-Employee Banquet.

DE Secretary Bonnie Cass is a clerk at Harris' Men's Store.

DE Sergeant-at-arms Robert Swanson is a checker at H.E.B. Food Store.

Patsy Lockridge, first-year DE student, works as a cashier and clerk at Winn's Variety Store.

Club Stays Active

This year the Distributive Education Club continued its precedent of well-organized activity. Besides providing its members with after-school jobs, the club also ushers and collects tickets at home football games. Also during football season the DE Club earns money by selling spirit ribbons and pennants. During homecoming week the organization selects a sweetheart and erects a float. Also each month a diligent DE member is honored by being selected DE Student of the Month by sponsor Bradley Gardner. The DE members' active year of school and job is climaxed by the February Austin Youth Conference, and the annual Employer-Employee Banquet in April.

Gary Johnston, DE historian, and Mardis Barton are both employed at H.E.B. Food Store.

Vocational Industrial Receive On-The-Job

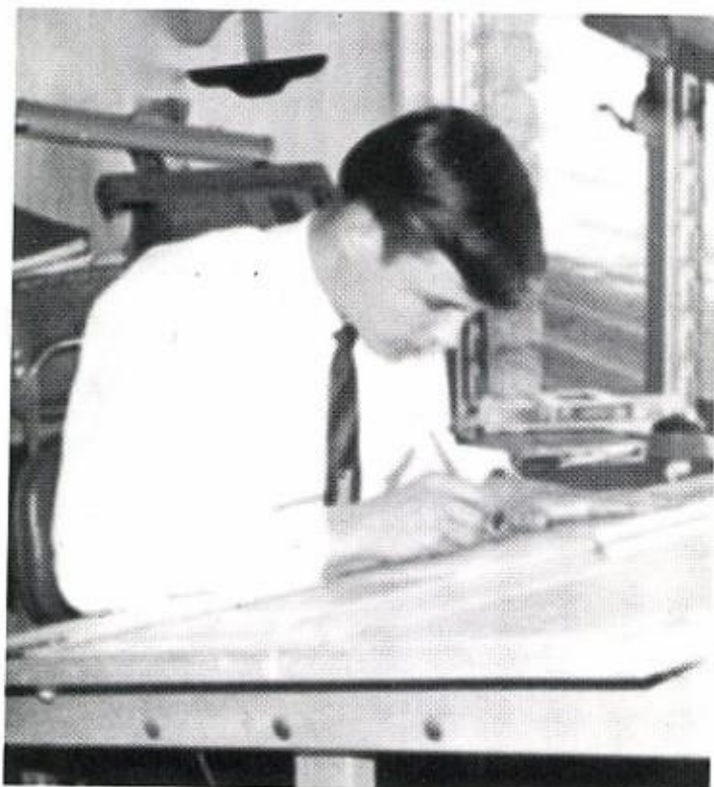

Charles Jines, treasurer, works in the meat department at H.E.B. Food Store.

Vocational Industrial Club is an organization made up of Industrial Cooperative Training students. Club members leave school at noon to report to their various jobs. All members are eligible to attend the district meet held in Austin in March. The winners of the district contest go to the state contest in Austin in April. In order to raise money, the club is in charge of the popcorn and snow cone concession stand at the home football games.

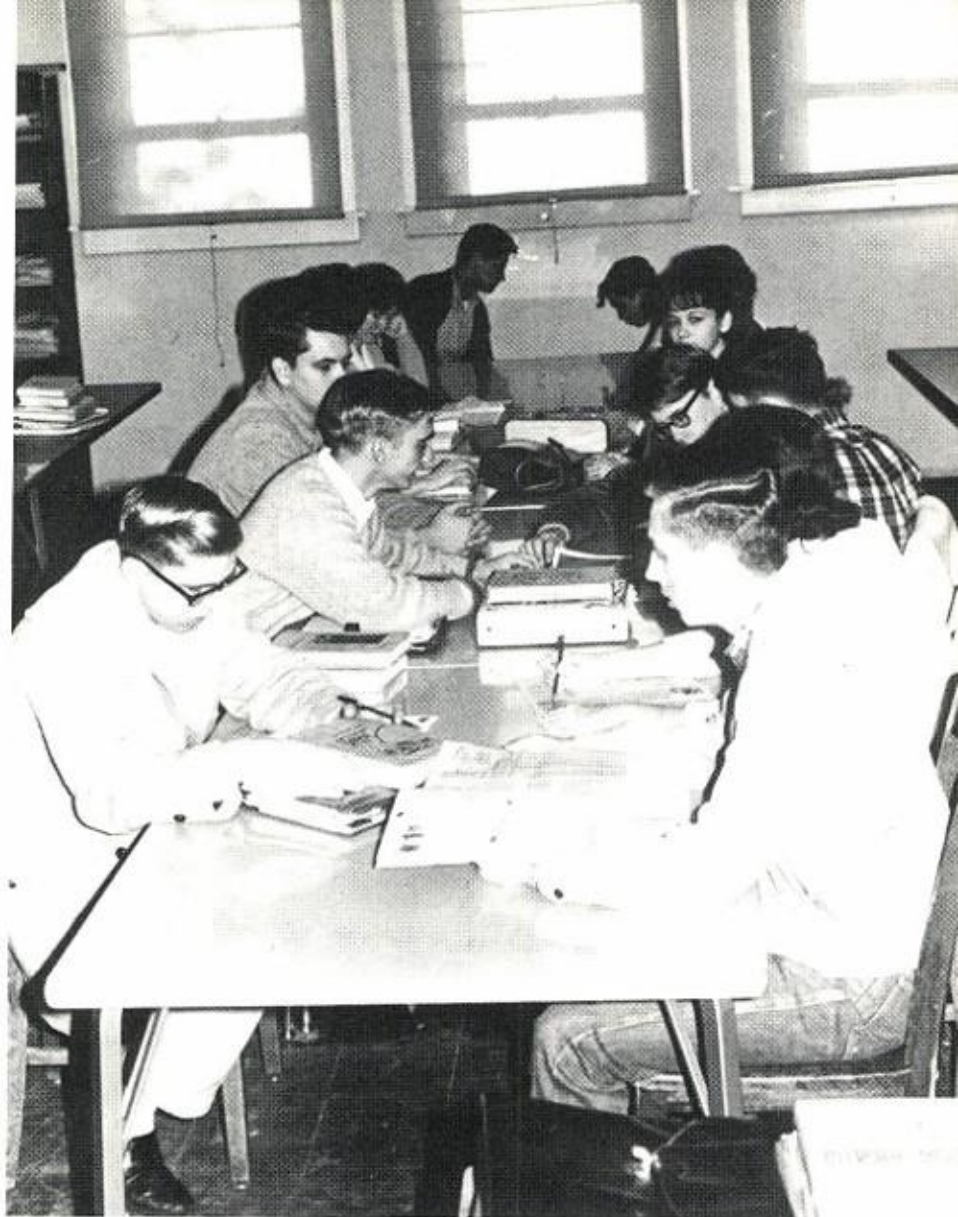

Jimmy Heiman, sergeant-at-arms, works at Mayfield Mattress Company.

Club Students Training

Ricky Woerner, reporter, employed at T.J. Moore Lumber Yard, helps draw house plans.

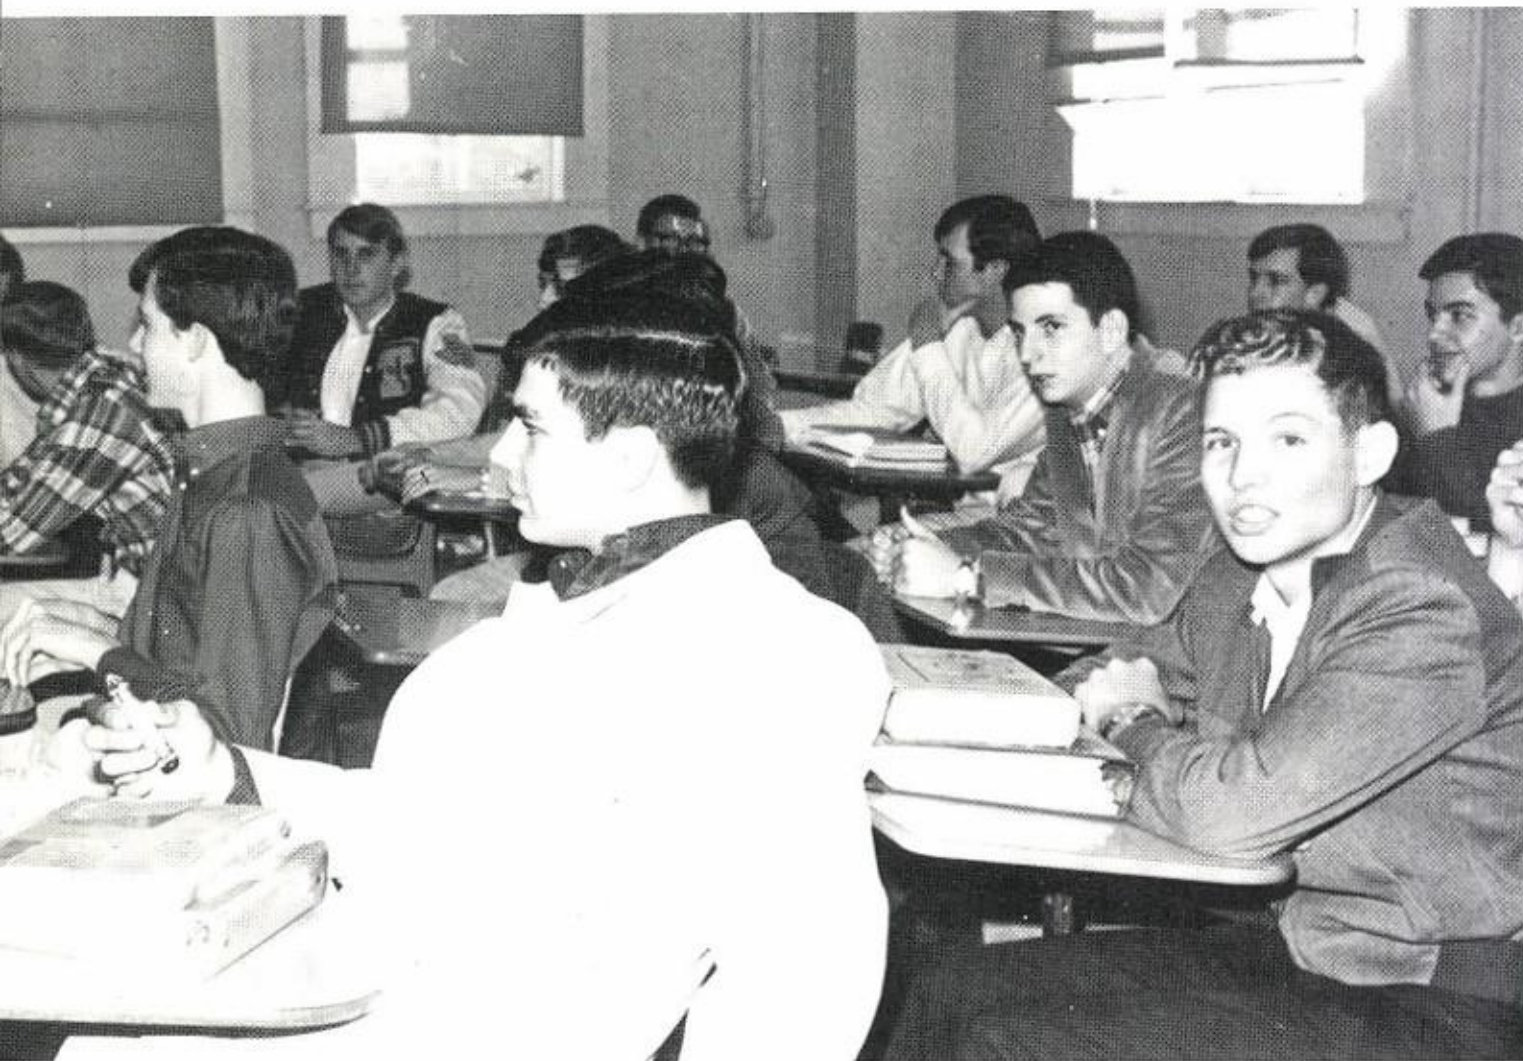

ICT students meet the first and second periods of the day.

Hal Watts, secretary, is among 15 students working at Mooney Aircraft.

Melvin Woolbright, ICT instructor, is the group's sponsor.

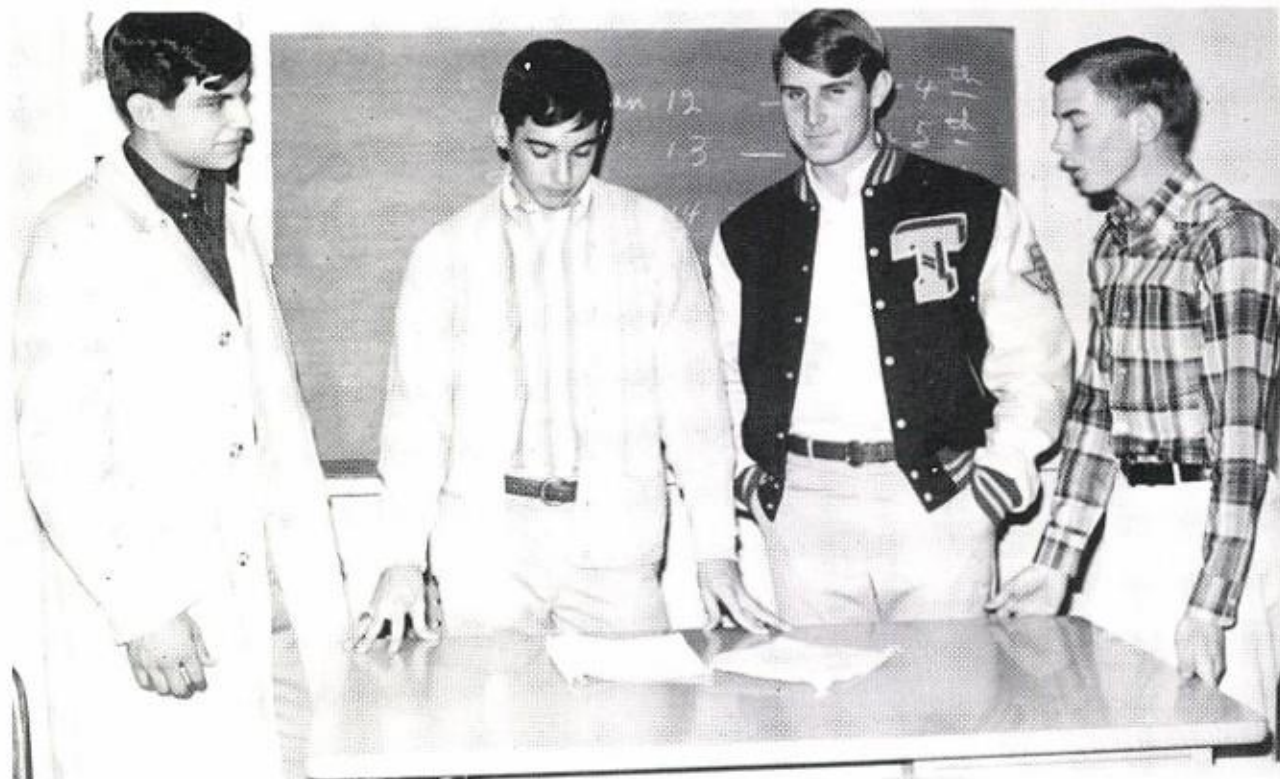

The Tivy Interact Club was formed at the end of the 1964 school year by the local Rotary Club. Interact serves the school as well as the community in any way possible. Last year the members were responsible for building the Homecoming bonfire. This year Interact members raised money for their organization by painting house numbers on street curbs for residents. The profits of the organization will be used for a service project.

Interact Club Benefits Community

Interact Sponsor Obed Cory contemplates plans for future projects.

Officers: Lary Priour, vice-president; Richard Marrs, president; Sully Woodland, secretary; and Drayton Mahaffey, treasurer, go over plans for the upcoming meeting.

Candy Cross, president, presides over a FNA meeting.

Members of the Future Nurses of America give their time in different aspects of service to the community. Junior and senior members work in Sid Peterson Hospital as aids to the nurses and all members assist in making cancer bandages for local hospitals. Every two months members help with the Blood Mobile. The girls see films, hear lectures, and go on an overnight field trip to the San Antonio hospitals.

Future Nurses Serve as Hospital Aids

Beverly Lyman, secretary-treasurer, works in the hospital as a Candy Striper once a week.

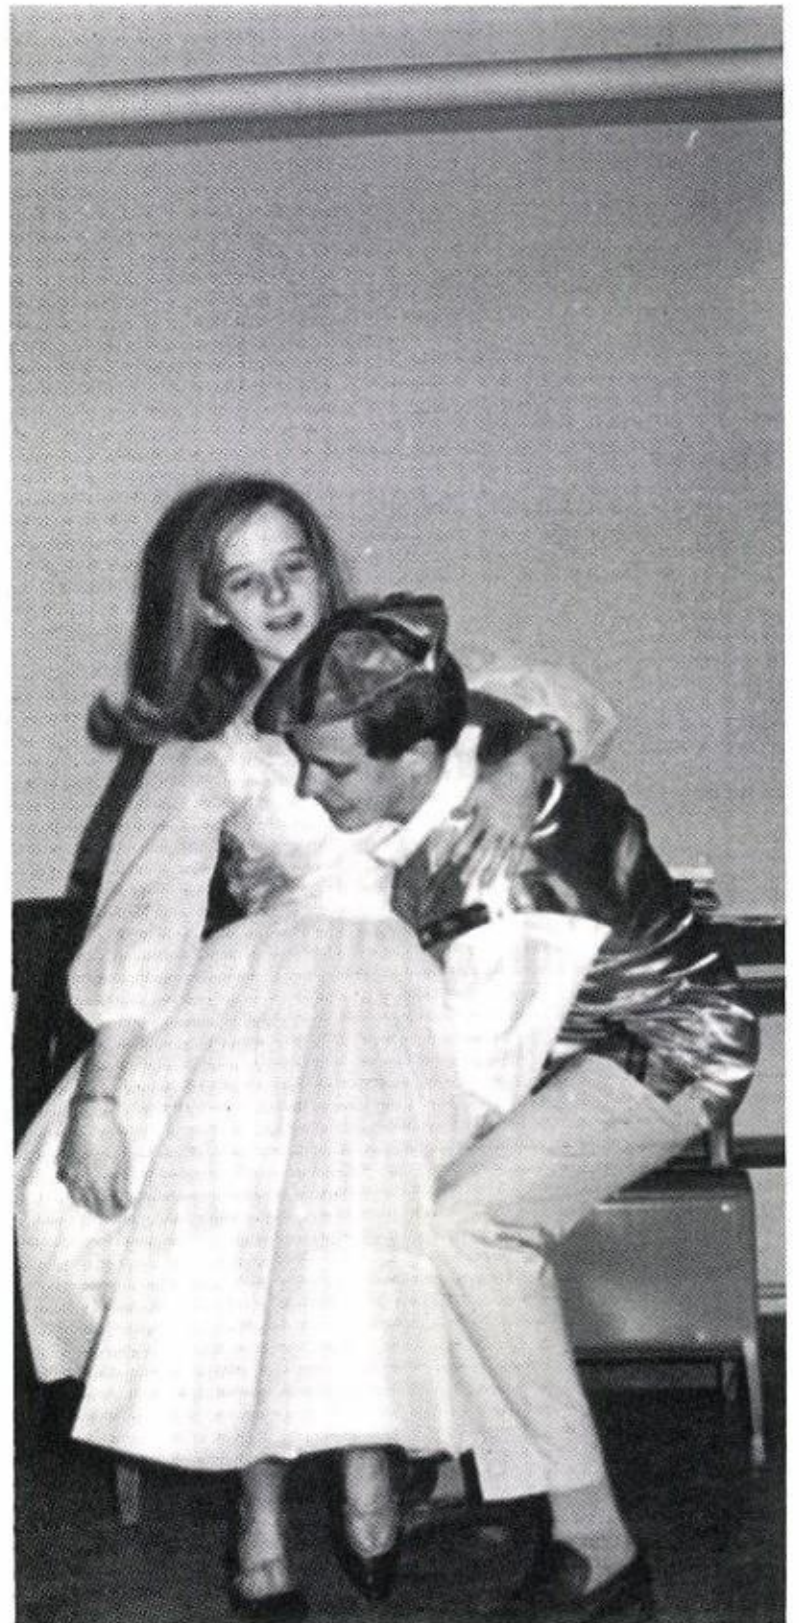

Mrs. Margaret Franke, sponsor, helps members Ann Webb and Norma Sumner make candy, which the club gives to the nurses.

Drama Club Presents

Angela Maurer rehearses a dramatic scene with Clinton Jones.

Peter Carr as Prince Simon in "The Ugly Duckling" proves his strength to Princess Camilla, Julie Nelson.

Jay Ward acts his part in "The Ugly Duckling" for cast members Peter Carr, Julie Nelson, George Carr, Judy Jones, Clinton Jones, and Angela Maurer.

Three One-Act Plays

The Drama Club, a recent addition to Tivy's extra-curricular organizations, has been formed for the benefit of those students interested in acting. The club has the responsibility for producing all school plays. Their first performance was three one-act plays: "Sorry, Wrong Number," "The Ugly Duckling," and "The Florist Shop."

President Dighton Packard, Secretary-treasurer Lynn LeMeilleur, Vice-president Cindy Lochte, and Sponsor Rachael Luna discuss plans for future plays.

Cast members practice-diligently to memorize lines.

Library Club officers work busily checking out books. They are Sherry Smith, president; Bobbie Nell Meyners, vice-president; Jackie Braddock, treasurer; Doris Heim, reporter; and Carol Wood, secretary and sweetheart.

Library Club Members

Members of the Library Club are kept busy helping students and assisting Mrs. Mary Carden with library matters. This year these students, who work at least one class period a day in the library, have catalogued almost 1,000 new books, including the assimilation of books from the science library. To defray expenses for trips and parties, the members sell paperback books as a service to students. In February several members travel to the State Teenage Library Association. The Library Club, which meets once a month, also provides a school service by keeping the window and bulletin boards in the main hall attractive with original designs and displays.

"There it goes!" While other members watch, Doris Heim has fun playing with her gift.

Sharon Maples, Connie Valdez, Sherry Ford, and Clifford Wood look up book cards.

Anita Harbison watches Jo Ann Doran and Kandy Ludeke at the initiation.

John Klingeman, Elvira Castillo, Betty Goodall, and Leona Fox check catalogue numbers.

Serve Students

Mrs. Mary Carden, sponsor, serves Bobbie Nell Meyners at the Christmas party.

Jackie Braddock and Beverly Lyman type book cards while Sandra Wright and Norma Hertel find magazines for students.

Lois Palmer, Jody Schellhase, Barbara Sansom, and Anna Prychodko make out receipts and check the treasury.

Tatler Staff Keeps

Staff members Penny Von Essen, editor; Roy Nelson, photographer; Jeanne Shumacher, business manager; Jerry Hunnicutt, sports editor; Nancy Holmes, third page editor, Frank Stevenson, assistant editor.

THS Informed

Tivy's bi-weekly newspaper covers activities on and around the campus, and gives journalism students practical experience.

As an active organization, the staff attends several UIL workshops and state ILPC meetings in Austin. To familiarize the students with the class favorites, the newspaper staff furnishes pictures and information of the nominees.

They will begin having bi-weekly news conferences with the administration, in hopes that this will maintain close contact with the administrators and students.

Though not actively rebellious, the newspaper entertains ideas of its own, some of which meet with hearty approval from the students. As all interests vary, so do the articles in the newspaper, offering something for everyone.

The prerequisite for membership is Journalism I, and selection by sponsor.

Antler Staff Is on the Go!

As their main objective, these twelve students work to organize a yearbook, and get it distributed. Deadlines have to be met, and there is always a job for each member on the staff.

Aside from putting out the annual, the staff also sells football programs at home games, and distributes free basketball and baseball programs during district games. The staff is also in charge of the elections of the all-school favorites.

Decorating for the Homecoming Dance and submitting the yearbook for criticism are among the other projects taken upon by the group.

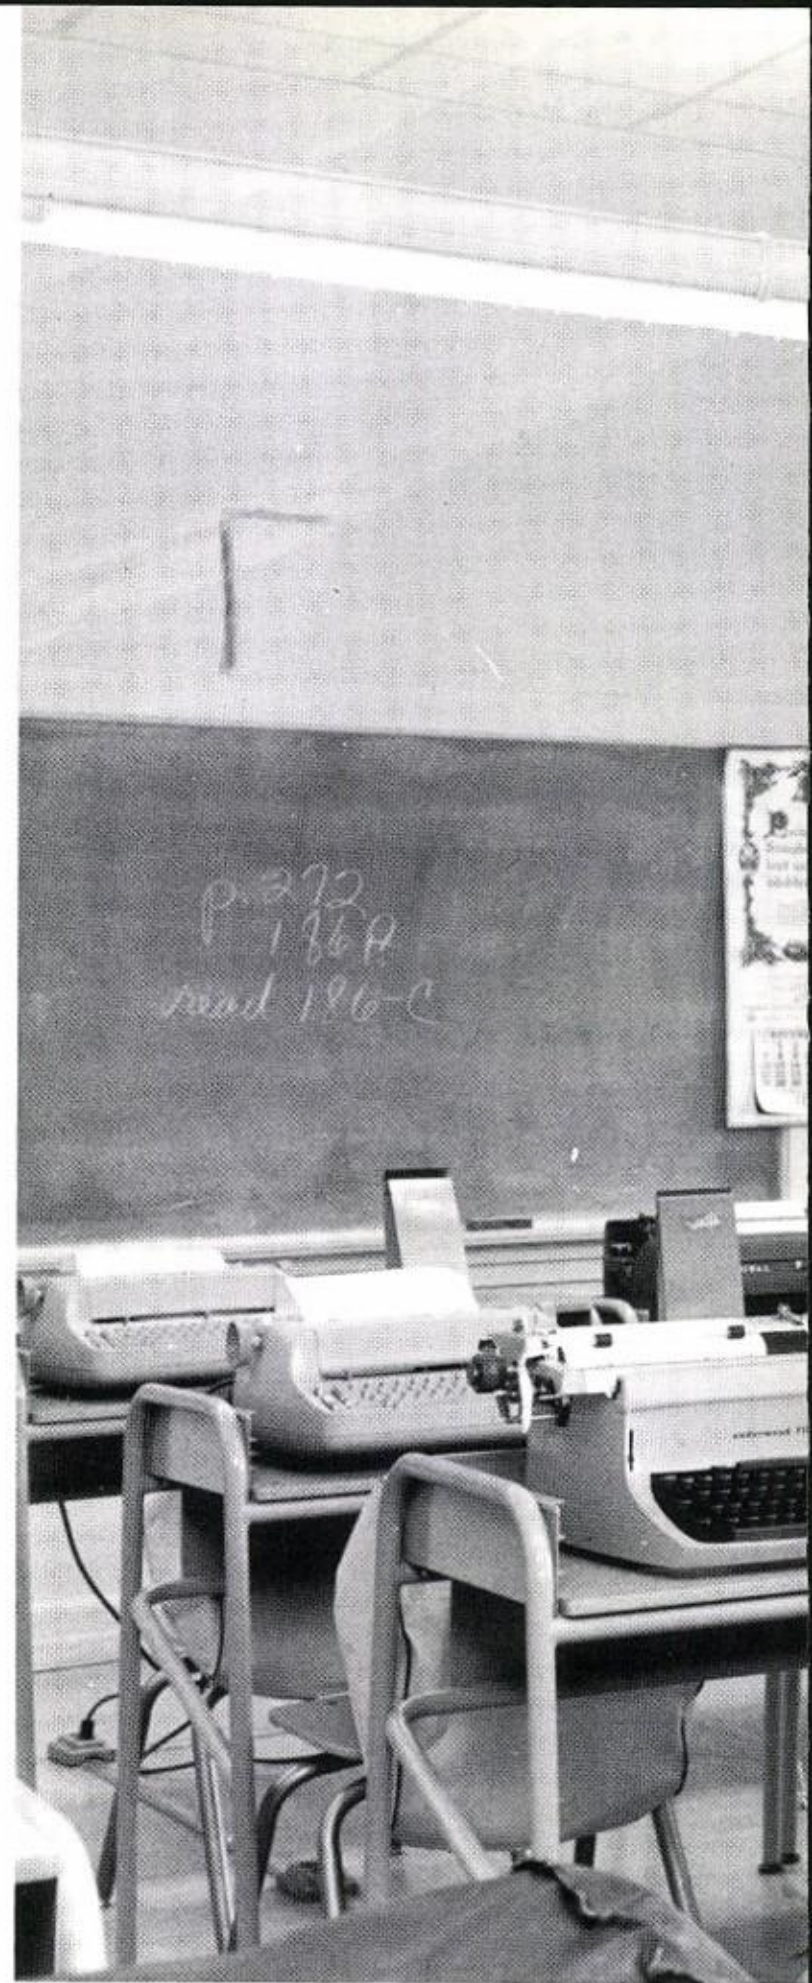

Several of the staff members visit the publishing plant in Wolfe City. This proves to be an interesting trip and everyone returns home having learned something new.

Antler members often have to face strong consequences in order to get pictures and copy in time for the deadlines. Pictured below, first row, Cindy Brundrett, business manager; Danelle Rees, junior class editor; Candy Cross, copy editor; Sue Sandidge, assistant business manager; George Carr, sports editor. Tivy Girls Show

Intramural basketball provides hard work and fun for all who participate in it. Here a group of girls in the second period PE class practice for a game.

As her team members look on, Andree Le-Meilleur returns the birdie in a fast game of aerial tennis.

Races are carried on between the various PE classes. Here is shown a relay race, one of a number of races in which the girls take part.

Athletic Ability

Antlerettes display their skill in sports during first period, after completing their exercises.

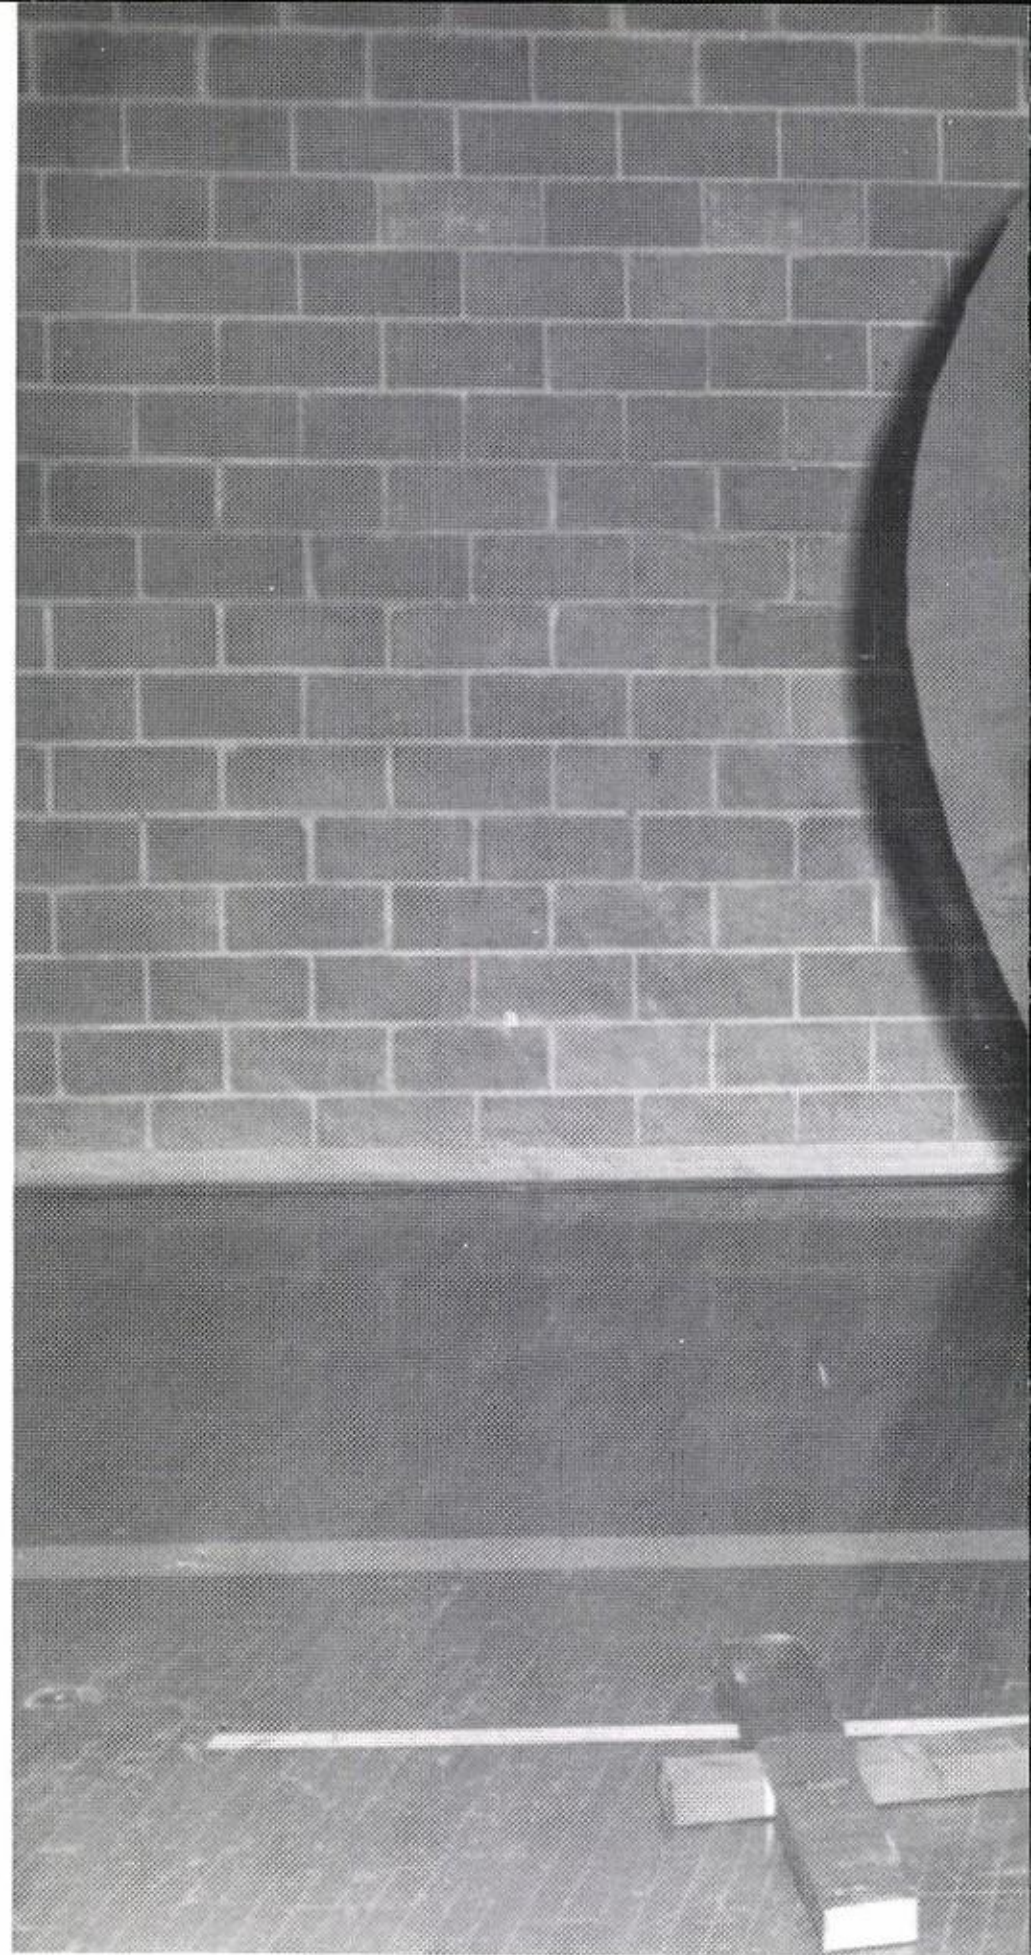

Carol Low takes the ball and tries for a basket during a practice game.

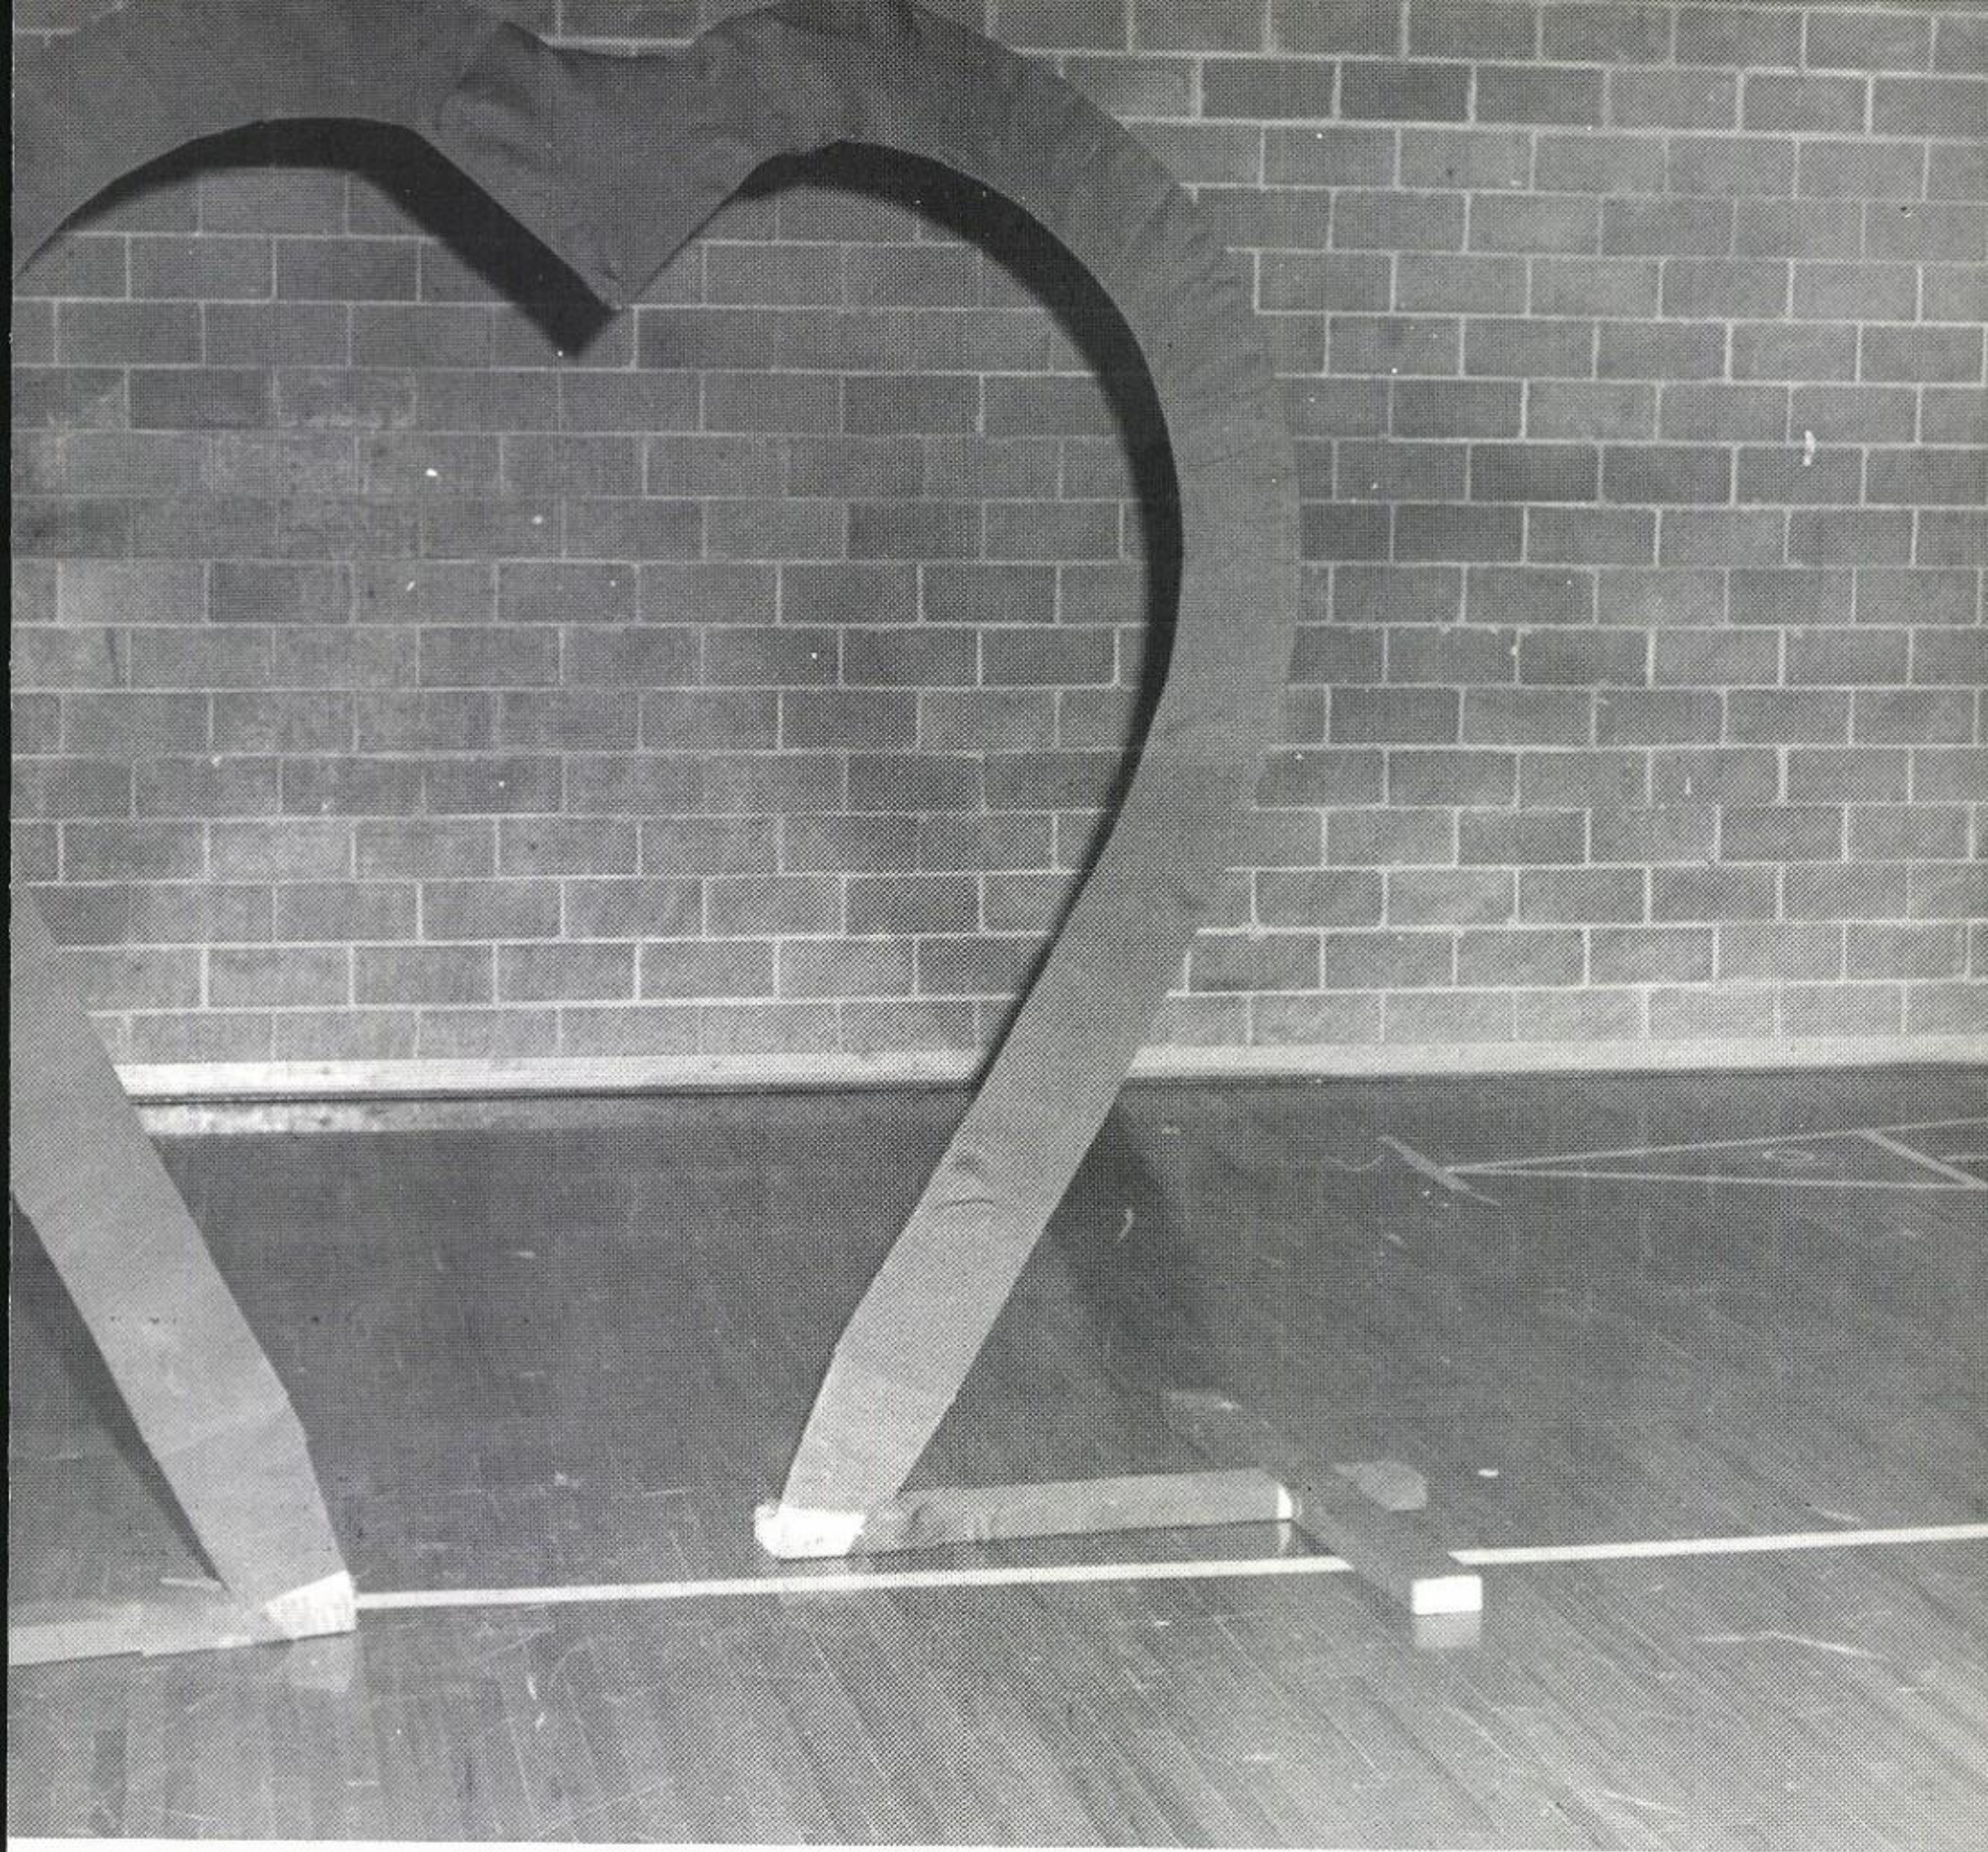

Ping pong intramurals are played in the different classes. Here, Debbie Rees and Richla Saunders work together to beat their opponents.

Progress is our most important product.

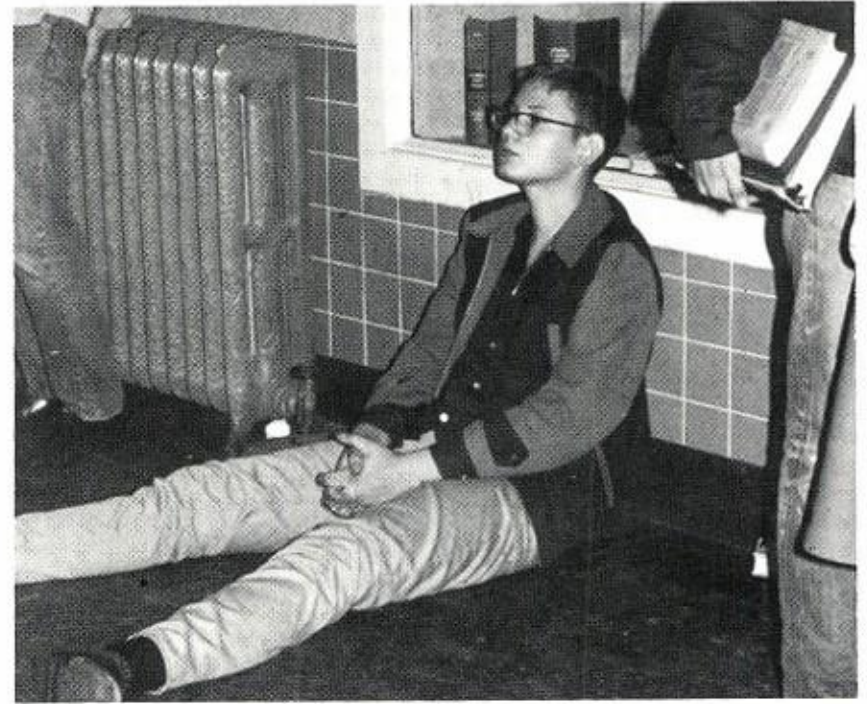

Come on girls-get in there and fight like men.

Let's see-how long did this one last?

Hey, Coach, who needs a new pitching machine?

Confucius say . . .

I shot an arrow in the air.

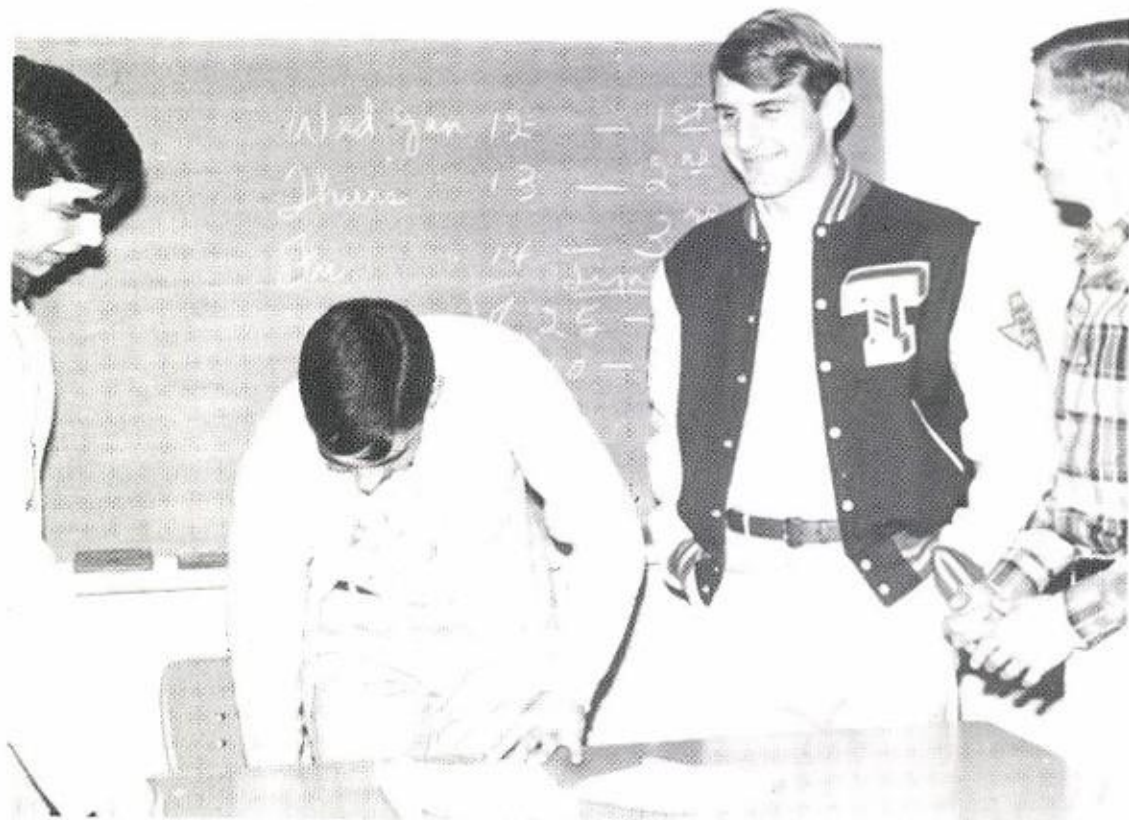

Would the real Ellis please stand up?

I do.

No matter what shape your tummy's in..

Laura, quit it!

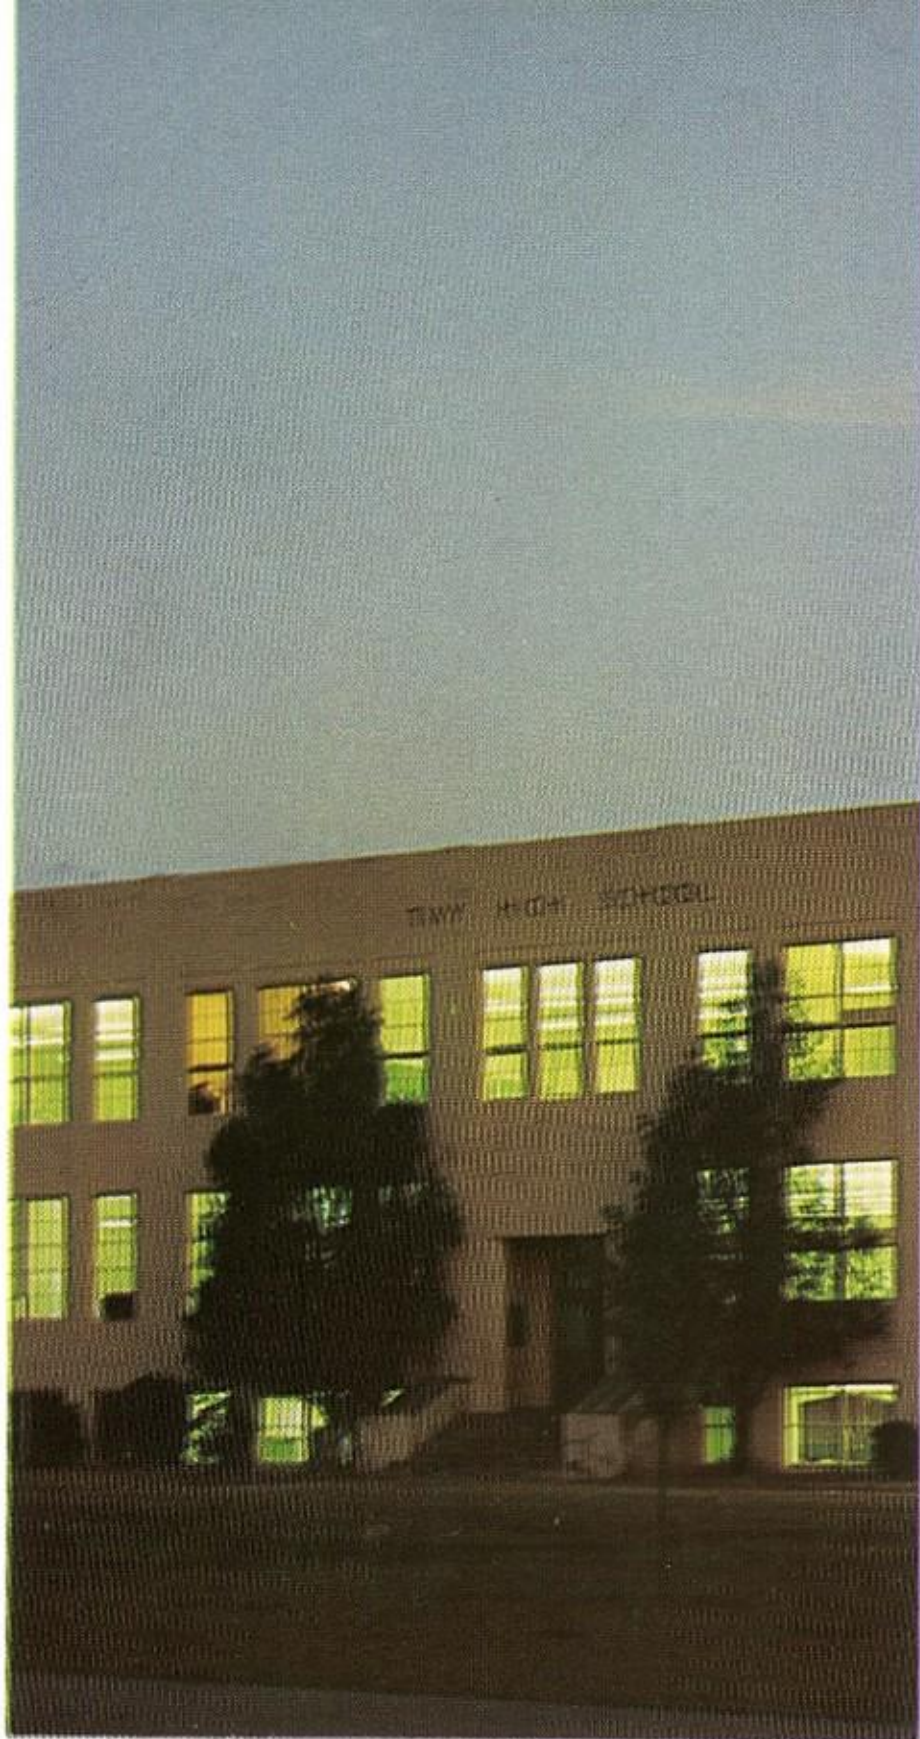

The Unswitchables

Has anyone lost a cocker spaniel?

Wouldya' believe. . .

... it's more than just a building.
